Girls all-star team

STOUFFVILLE — Star Hockey Team. Look out! Clear the track! Here comes — no, not Eddie Shack. These hockey players are much prettier. They'll be playing their home games every Sunday evening at the Stouffville arena. He hopes there will be large turnouts for the games, promising some good hockey.

Stouffville will have its own senior girls All-Star Hockey Team. They'll be playing their home games every Sunday evening at the Stouffville arena. He hopes there will be large turnouts for the games, promising some good hockey.

Junior Farmers play for Participation House

Though the C.F.G.M. All-Stars didn't show up, the Unionville Jr. Farmers still managed to raise $236 for Participation House by dividing up into two teams. Here Linda Spence fires in a pitch to Ron Dunn. By some coincidence, the teams tied at 23 runs apiece.

Bantam Girls

Lose game to Linwood

STOUFFVILLE — Despite a tremendous performance from Stouffville pitcher Darlene Wagg, Linwood dropped the Stouffville Bantam Girls CC team 9-3 in the first game of the provincial finals.

There wasn't any shortage of Stouffville talent, as Darlene struck out seven of the Linwood players. But neither this feat nor Karen Brodie's fine plays at second base and Ester-Herbert's home run could stop the Linwood attack.

A number of errors allowed five Linwood runs in at the top of the fifth inning, and they went on to win.

The players on the Stouffville team are Sue Beelby, Darlene Wagg, Pam Lewis, Karen Brodie, Teresa Erving, Ester Herbert, Joanne Dart, Donna Bangay, Carrie Burd, Cathy Lacoursiere, Debbie Pattenden, Heather Raymer, and Jackie Armet.

Midget Girls

Ousted from semi-finals

STOUFFVILLE — strength and were a solid team," said Stouffville coach Lloyd Kerswill. "They deserved to win." Things were going well until the top of the third inning. After two, the score was 3-2 for the Kirkton team. But then a combination of Stouffville's errors and Kirktion's power allowed the Kirkton girls 6 runs. Stouffville just couldn't catch up, despite a valiant effort from the players. They are Jackie St. John, Darlene Marshman, Merna Davidson, Kathleen Kamps, Kelly Rex-Graham, Liz Brodie, Vicki MacDonald, Lori Bell, Barb Rowe, Jo Lynn Ayotte, Martha Neely, Brenda Lambert, Colleen McConnell, and Doris Risebrough. Gary Hess was their manager, Dave MacDonald the assistant coach, and Lloyd Kerswill the coach.

Lee Sand and Gravel

Record 26 - 5 victory

STOUFFVILLE — In Ladies Fun League action, Lee Sand and Gravel walloped Montgomery Construction and Haulage to record a 26-5 victory.

Marg Schell blasted out two home runs for the Lee team, an example of the superlative offense that led them to a win.

In the second game, Canadian Tire bats outpowered John's Girls, and the Tire team squeaked past John's by a score of 18-6.

Canadian Tire's Gail Hunter drove out two homeruns. Teammates Judy Bond, Linda Lee, and Karen Rae also had homeruns.
