

Eighty year old Stouffville Coach House soon a home

The well-known Coach House on Second Street, Stouffville, is having its face lifted. The landmark structure, built by Jacob Heise around 1900, is being remodelled into a private residence. Mr. Heise built it and his own home for $2,500. To-day, the Coach House alone is expected to sell for something over $90,000.

Rev. Roy Sider

Church bishop to retire

By Evelyn Milsted

GORMLEY — A special evening has been arranged, Sept. 8 in Hamilton to honor Bishop Roy Sider, soon to retire as leader of the Ontario Brethren in Christ Churches. His successor is Rev. Harvey Sider, well-known in this community. Mrs. Sider, the former Erma Heise, was born and raised in Gormley. Harvey served as a missionary in India for eleven years; was pastor at Stayner for two years and has been President of Niagara Christian College, Ft. Erie for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Fedd Harris have moved to Owen Sound. They had resided in Gormley seventeen years.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wright of Rosemont spent Saturday with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wright and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Ash have returned from a two weeks holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Holmes of Shellbrook, Saskatchewan.

Sympathy is expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Patten in the passing of their 12 year old son, John.

Blanche, Freda and Ruth Henderson and Dorothy Good have returned from a holiday in Bermuda.

Mr. Bob van Norman of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, was a guest at the Wightman-Heise wedding, Saturday. Mrs. Hilda Hoadley of Bobcageon was also here for the wedding and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wideman.

This is your invitation to attend a miscellaneous shower for Linda Empringham and Ken Harmon at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 11 at the Victoria Square Hall. Linda is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Empringham.

Mrs. Ralph Neill, Shawn and Darryl visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Shand in Nova Scotia for two months. Her parents and Ralph's father, Mr. Elgin Neill, returned with them for two weeks.

Alvin, Angeline, and Guy Coneybeare of Listowel spent a week's holiday with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Metro Sudeyko.

Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Ash were married thirty-three years, Aug. 25. Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Luca of Richmond Hill entertained in their honor at a family dinner, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sargent and sons of Peterboro were week-end guests of her mother, Mrs. Blanche Cordon.

The ladies of Heise Hill Church and the Missionary Church are busy preparing for the annual Pioneer Village M.C.C. Relief Sale on Saturday, Sept. 16. Any donations of baking, canning, or crafts will be appreciated as all the proceeds are used for relief purposes in various parts of the world. The annual Vacation School at the Missionary Church proved a success. Thirty-five staff assisted. The average attendance was 110, and $213.91 was raised for a Missions project.

The W.M.S. ladies of the Missionary Church hosted the August birthday party at Parkview Home Wednesday afternoon.

Several Parkview residents attended the funeral service for Mrs. Verna Grove, Aug. 21.

A group from Emmanuel International participated in an inspirational meeting, Aug. 22.

Rev. Tom Hamilton of Springvale Baptist Church led the worship service at Parkview, Aug. 20. On Aug. 27, Rev. Glen Brubacher was the guest pastor from Cedar Grove Menonite Church.

On Aug. 24, seven Parkview residents, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Baatz, attended the Horticultural Society's flower show in the United Church. Mrs. Annie Betz brought home a door prize. Mrs. Wahneita Davis had the pleasure of viewing a floral display of roses honoring her late husband, Rev. Douglas Davis. The award in this special class was won by Gladys Allan, Fairview Avenue.
