

Around Town

Family reunion
A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Oldham, R.R. 2, Stouffville, Sunday. The occasion was their 40th wedding anniversary. Three members of their immediate family were able to be present including daughter Joan (Mrs. Lorne Avery) of Ottawa and two sons, Wayne of R.R. 2, Claremont and David of R.R. 1, Stouffville. A third son, Jim, lives in Vancouver. The honored couple were pleased to have Mr. Oldham's mother with them. Mrs. Myrtle Oldham resides in Newmarket. They have nine grandchildren.

Bakery opens
The public is invited to visit the new Villa Italian Bakery, 67 Edward Street on Thursday (to-day) for the official opening by Mayor Gordon Ratcliff at 11 a.m. Every family will receive a free loaf of bread and a mini pizza, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Business hours, Monday through Wednesday are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., Thursday through Saturday, 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Pretty ceremony
Jack Goudie and Chrystal Ferrier were married, Sept. 1, in a pretty evening ceremony at the Stouffville Missionary Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Ferrier, Main Street, Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Goudie, Market Street, Stouffville. The happy couple are now residing on O'Brien Avenue in town.

Home from Bangkok
Due to air strikes and other disruptions, George King of Booth Drive, Stouffville, had to take "the long way around" before arriving home, last week from a three-week business trip to Bangkok, Thailand.

Horticultural Society
The September meeting and flower show, sponsored by the Stouffville Horticultural Society, will be held on Monday, Sept. 18 in the lower auditorium of the United Church at 8 p.m. The guest speaker is Ken Reeves of "Woodbridge Plants and Flowers". Mr. Reeves, well-known on radio, will speak on the subject of house plants and later answer questions. Guest soloist for the evening will be Donna Painter.

To Calgary
Mr. and Mrs. John Lang, Manitoba Street, are enjoying a holiday trip to Calgary, Alberta, where they will visit with Mr. Lang's sister. They expect to be gone about three weeks.

From Dieppe, N.B.
Mr. and Mrs. Alan Sanderson of Dieppe, New Brunswick, were in Stouffville for a few days last week and enjoyed a visit with his mother, Mrs. Lucy Sanderson, Main Street.

Host ball team
After the long trip home from Kirkland Lake, the players and management of the Stouffville Juvenile ball club were pleased to be invited back to the home of Harry and Barb Schell, Orchard Park Blvd., for a late-night lunch and coffee.

Anniversary reunion
On Saturday, Rev. and Mrs. Norman Rowan, now of Cambridge, Ont., will renew acquaintances with many friends on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. An "open house" is planned in their honor at Springvale Baptist Church on the Stouffville-Gormley Road near the 6th concession from 2 to 5 p.m. Rev. Rowan was the minister to the congregation there many years.

Fund-raising dance
The Whitechurch-Stouffville Branch of the Arthritis Society is holding a fund-raising dance on Fri., Sept. 29 in Latcham Hall, Stouffville. Tickets ($8 including a light buffet) are available from Dr. Bill Murphy, Lou Meydam and Gale Harris.

Public meeting
The Stouffville Family Life Centre is holding a public meeting, Tues., Sept. 19 at 8 p.m., in the Library. The guest speaker will be Stan Shapiro, noted psychologist, educator and counsellor. Residents in town are invited.

Breaks ankle
Clare McGuckin, manager of the Stouffville Dist. Credit Union Office on Main Street, is back at work despite the inconvenience of a cast. He suffered a broken ankle on the last day of his summer vacation.

Welcome to town
Stouffville welcomes Ted and Pam Goulbourne and children, Lisa, 12; Laura, 11 and Kerri 6. They have moved into the home owned previously by Mr. and Mrs. Les Jones and family, 72 Charles Street, coming here from Scarborough.

Coach-manager
Jack Watson, Tenth Line South, Stouffville, has been named coach of Markham's Junior "B" hockey club for the 1978-79 season. The team manager is Frank Wilbur, also well-known in Stouffville.

Co-op meets
The 35th annual meeting of the Stouffville Co-operative Association will be held on Thursday (to-night) at 8:15 p.m., in the Masonic Hall. The president for the year ending May 31 is Grant Drewery; vice-president, Don Miller; secretary, T.C. Kerr and members of the board — Bev Beach, Claude Kerr, Jim Rae, Lloyd Grose, Stuart Watson and Jack Warriner. The Co-op manager is George Timbers. Ivan Degeer of R.R. 3, Mount Albert will show pictures taken while attending the World Plowing Match.

Cancer Society
The Markham Unit of the Canadian Cancer Society, including the areas of Stouffville and Unionville, will hold its annual meeting, Sept. 20 at 1:30 p.m., at Grace Anglican Church, 19 Parkway Avenue, Markham. Guest speaker is Rev. Gordon Hunter, minister at Locust Hill and Melville United Churches.

Not a judge
Fred Timbers of Stouffville will not be a judge at the International Plowing Match this year, a task he's performed since 1953. Mr. Timbers' connection with the big event spans 55 years, both as a competitor and a judge.

80th birthday
On the occasion of her 80th birthday, friends and relatives of Mrs. May Thompson are invited to an "open house" in her honor, on Sunday, Sept. 17 from 2 to 4:30 p.m., in the Goodwood Community Hall.

Kinsmen meet
The Kinsmen Club of Stouffville will meet on Thursday (tonight) at 7 p.m., in Latcham Hall. Prospective members, 21 to 40, should contact Ray Donn at 640-2975.

"Open House"
On the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary, the family of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pegg Baker Avenue, Stouffville is holding an "open house" in their honor, Sunday, Sept. 17, from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m., at the Jubilee Club, Main Street. Friends and relatives are invited. Best wishes only.

Mexicana Night
The Parent Group of 1st Ballantree Guides and Brownies are holding a Mexicana Night fall dance at the Ballantree Community Centre, Sat., Sept. 23 at 8 p.m. For tickets, $7.50 per couple ($8.50 at the door), call 640-1167; 640-5138 or 473-2372. The admission includes a midnight chili and taco buffet.

Challenge series

STOUFFVILLE
The Stouffville Family Life Centre offers counselling to individuals and families as well as educational programs. The purpose of such discussions is to enrich the well-being of the family and prevent problems before they arise.

Three categories have been established for sessions that will begin, Tues., Sept. 26 and continue every Tuesday for 12 weeks. The categories are: The Challenge, for parents of children, infant to 11 years; The Continuing Challenge, for parents of young people, 12 to 19 years; and The Challenge Advanced, for parents who have completed the other two.

Categories 1 and 2 are from 7:30 to 9 p.m.; and Category 3 from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

A certified leadership course will be held from 7:30 to 8 p.m. The location is the upstairs auditorium of the Stouffville Credit Union Building (rear entrance), Main Street West. The fee is $25 per person; $40 per couple.

The annual Antique Show in the Markham Arena, last week, attracted 35 exhibitors, two from as far distant as Beaconsfield, Quebec. The event was sponsored by St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Here, 19 year old Lorraine Brown of Box Grove admires a once-familiar school clock, displayed by Ruth Ingram of Unionville. The timepiece carries a price tag of $290.

Children's Story Hour

STOUFFVILLE
Again this fall, the Whitechurch-Stouffville Public Library will be offering a pre-school children's story hour. The program is intended for boys and girls from 3 to 5 years old who do not yet attend school. Registrations will be accepted from Sept. 19 to 30. Purpose of the program is to introduce the young child to the library and its materials in a group situation and encourage the exploration of a new environment in a carefully observed manner. Stories, games, films and puppets will be featured.

New 4-H projects

The Ontario Ministry of Agriculture and Food is presenting an all-new project for 4-H Homemaking clubs in Ontario. Girls 12 years old by Sept. 1, 1978, may join.

The program, called "Essential Edibles" is a fun food experience with something new to cook in each of the seven weekly meetings. Participants will also learn to use the new metric measure and keep up to date on nutrition.

The leaders of Stouffville I and Stouffville II are — Mrs. Bruce Davidson (640-1999); Mrs. Allen Darling (640-3521); Mrs. Alex Davidson (640-5653) and Mrs. Alan Powell (640-3222). Leaders of the Bethesda Club are Mrs. D. Dunn (888-1280) and Mrs. A. Lowe (888-1295).
