

Riding a brahma bull is not exactly the safest occupation one could have, as the cowboy on his hands and knees above can attest to. The cowboy was competing in last weekend's Uxbridge Stampede, an Ontario Rodeo Association sanctioned meet. After being thrown off the bull it was a mad scramble back to his feet and out of the way before any more damage could be done. For further pic of the rodeo, see page 14. Keith Bolender

Last hockey registration

Although organizers of the girls hockey league are having problems getting their registration quotas, the boys in contrast have turned out in full force. Apparently boys hockey registration has been going very good, according to one of the organizers, Bob Dart. It seems likely that there will be the same amount of house league teams, five, and OMHA clubs, nine, as there were last year. However, there's still time to register for boys. All late registrations will be held at Bob Dart Real Estate, Main street, between 9 a.m. and 8 p.m. There will also be further registrations for the girls, as it was reported that the league still needs about 40 more players to fill the teams. Registration takes place this Friday, between 7 and 9 p.m.; Saturday, Sept. 30, between 9 a.m. and 12 noon and Sunday, Oct. 1, between 5:30 and 9:30 p.m. The registrations will all be held at the Arena. The girls have also this year lowered their playing age to eight, and have added a senior all star team to compete in outside league play.

Opening round playoff results in ladies league

John's Girls squeaked out a 17-16 victory over Lee Sand and Gravel in opening round Ladies fun league playoffs last week. The star of the game was Linda Williams for John's Girls, as she made a fantastic double play to preserve the win. Her team mate Kathy Artieb belted out two home runs.

The second playoff game saw Canadian Tire take an overtime victory over Montgomery Construction and Haulage 10-9.

The victories put John Girl's against Canadian Tire for the championship this week, while Lee Sand and Gravel goes up against Montgomery Construction for the consolation. Also this weekend the Lee Sand and Gravel All Stars will see action at the main park in Stouffville as the Ladies league hosts their first softball tourney.
