

Many attractions at Markham Fair

Lucky guy! And a scarecrow at that! Not satisfied with winning a ribbon at Markham Fair, he 'enticed' the Fair Queen, Cathy Case into giving him a kiss. Fortunately (for her), he couldn't return the favor. —Jim Thomas

"Beau," a 4 year old Great Dane was the largest dog in Markham Fair's Pet Show, Friday. He's held (?) by owner Lee Stacey, Fred Varley Drive, Unionville. —Jim Thomas

Clydesdale horses, owned by Gord Lewis of Cashel, were prominent in the winners' circle at Markham Fair. This single entry is handled by daughter, Darlene. —Keith Bolender

Thirteen year old Cathy Holmes of R.R.1, Stouffville, entered Markham Fair's Jr. Horse Show for a first time, Friday. And while she didn't win an award in her opening class, she enjoyed the experience. Her horse's name is "Candy." —Jim Thomas

The high-point winner in the Eighteen and Under Class at Markham Fair was Susan Thomas, Rupert Avenue, Stouffville. She recorded two firsts; seven seconds; one third and four fourths. She receives the K.J. Beamish Co. Ltd. trophy from firm vice-president, Jim Ross.

HEATHER HOOVER
HighPoint Student

ANNE-MARIE BERREVOETS
Spelling Champion

"Peter," a huge rabbit, was declared the Grand Champion in Markham Fair's Pet Show, Friday. Peter's two owners, Kevin (left) and Trevor Stewart of Summerfeldt Cresc., Unionville, hold the Ron Underwood Trophy, emblematic of the title. —Jim Thomas

Operating a steam engine is nothing new for Gord Penny, Albert Street, Markham. This 1922 Sawyer-Massey is owned by the Markham Historical Society. It was on display at Markham Fair. —Jim Thomas

Race-winner, Bob Bodkin of Sutton receives a beautiful horse blanket from Markham Fair queen, Cathy Case and Past-president, Rogers Gardham. On the left is owner Al Draganac. —Jim Thomas