TUESDAY

Headline Hunters

Each week the intriguing, the unusual, the infamous and the amusing challenge contestants on their ability to identify famous news events and newsmakers of the past. Jim Perry returns to host the entertaining and informative HEADLINE HUNTERS.

What's My Line?

Mystery celebrities, guests with unusual talents and hidden professions keep panelists Tiu Leek, Larry Solway and Nuala Fitzgerald on a merry-go-round of questioning as Don McGowan hosts the all new Canadian production of WHAT'S MY LINE.

Grandpa Goes To Washington

8:00 p.m.

To prove that 66-year-old history professor Joseph Kelly, played by Jack Albertson, is not washed up, he runs for the United States Senate and wins! Dedicated to his beliefs of honesty and concern, Kelly gets involved each week in another hilarious episode of GRANDPA GOES TO WASHINGTON.

In The Beginning

9:00 p.m.

IN THE BEGINNING is a half hour of comedy delight as McLean Stevenson portrays a conservative, distinguished Priest attempting to oversee a street-front mission run by a young, worldly nun with a degree in psychology and a black belt in karate.

Taxi

9:30 p.m.

The humanity and the humour of the New York City street scene unfolds through the experiences of an incongruous group of cabbies in the comedy/drama TAXI. Judd Hirsch portrays Alex, a cab driver with a sassy sense of humour surrounded by a mix of oddball driving hacks.

Quincy

Jack Klugman stars as QUINCY, the over-eager Los Angeles coroner whose fine tuned ability to spot miniscule medical clues takes forensic science out of the laboratory and into the streets. QUINCY often finds himself in the role of super sleuth in order to prove his professional suspicions.
