

"Our Girl Next Door"

Sary's a country girl

By Jim Thomas

VIVIAN — Sary Van Vliet's a country girl. Her family's home is tucked away in the woods on the edge of Vivian Forest.

While far removed from the whirl of urban life, there's no lack of things to do. Interests include collecting and refinishing furniture, skiing, swimming, hiking, tennis, skating and jogging.

She's also an excellent pianist, utilizing this talent to teach others. She has a class of six pupils.

In addition to all this, Sary is a part-time cashier at a store called "Strawberry Fields" in Woodside Square, Scarborough. Previously, she served as a dental assistant in the office of Dr. Wm. Zeck, then in the Stouffville Plaza.

Sary's our "Girl Next Door."

With all the aforementioned extra-curricular activities, this pretty 18 year old still finds time for studies in Grade 13. Art and Sociology are her favorite subjects. Following graduation, she may take a course in social work at Ryerson or enrol in the Ontario College of Art. At this point, she's not quite sure.

Sary's a Prefect at Stouffville High, a position she considers "an honor."

Family and school trips have taken her to a number of different places including Europe, Mexico, Alberta, Florida and Prince Edward Island. Some day she wants to visit British Columbia and maybe take a Caribbean cruise.

Sary has two sisters, Irene and Magdalene and one brother, Jerome. They've lived north of St. John's Sideroad near Vivian for the past eight years and before that, on Tindale Road, Stouffville.

Eighteen year old Sary Van Vliet resides in a beautiful home on the edge of Vivian Forest. She's an excellent pianist with a class of six pupils. Other interests include collecting and refinishing furniture, skiing, tennis, skating, hiking and jogging. She's a student in Grade 13 at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. Jim Thomas.

Enjoy Festival at Stratford

By Mary Jo Sutherland

To go or not to go? That was the question the S.D.S.S. Senior students faced last spring concerning the fifteen dollar trip to Stratford. Well, decisions were made and last week three bus loads of students travelled to the Stratford Festival to view Shakespeare's play "Julius Caesar". Before the play began the students had a chance to talk with some of the actors and actresses about the theatre. On the return trip a special stop was made in Kitchener at the Berkeley Inn, where the students "feasted" upon a delectable smorgasbord. Hopefully, a trip to Stratford will also be arranged during the spring season!

S.D.S.S. is glad to welcome back its French monitor, Michel Laganier, a university student. For the second year, Monsieur Laganier will be coming to our school each Monday morning to instruct French groups in an informal fashion. The ten-member groups carry on conversations in French concerning the Quebec way of life, music, festivities and also just communicate their own ideas with one another.

Stouffville High's Reach For The Top Team, consisting of Bill Kingsley, John Christie, Patti Richards and Usha Knabe, matched wits against Gravenhurst High in their first taping held in Barrie. Unfortunately, their opponents outwitted them and were thus selected to advance to the next round. Congratulations to the foursome for their fine attempt.

Last Friday, the Grade 8's took over the gym and held their first dance! The night's music was provided by disc jockey, James Heidema. As a good time was had by all, the Grade 8 students are looking forward to having a second dance.

Recently our Senior Spartans Volleyball team travelled to Dunbarton High School to participate in their first major tournament of the season. Great effort and fine teamwork enabled the "rookie-studded line-up" to win the consolation championship. In the finals, they defeated Dunbarton in two straight matches. In the near future our Spartans plan to play host to Donevan Collegiate (Oshawa), Dunbarton High School, and Fenelon Falls High School in some outstanding exhibition games. Stay tuned for the dates of these exciting attractions and we invite you to come and cheer our boys; Ken Benson, Paul Boynton, David Dart, Lloyd Johnston, Angelo Monopoli, David Rehill, Richard Reesor and Mike Salb, on to victory!

After last week's dazzling victories displayed by our Jr. and Sr. Girls' Basketball teams, the recent losses were "extra" heart-breaking! Even though Stouffville was the host, King City adjusted to the new courts and both their Jr. and Sr. squads defeated our own.

Hopefully, some future Argos are in the making as the Grade 8's take to the field for an annual Flag Football Tournament. The boys and girls each have their own league consisting of four teams coached by the Senior students. This sport is just like regular football — minus the tackles! Instead, a belt with two fluorescent orange flags is worn. In order to stop a play, one of the velcro-attached flags must be torn off. It's great fun and cuts down on the injuries and the dirt.

Poor turkey

By Tracey Duke, Grade 5
One week before Thanksgiving, I heard my owner and his wife talking outside my gate. They were looking at all the turkeys and wondering which one they should eat for Thanksgiving dinner. All of a sudden, he pointed to me. I ran and hid. I knew I was fat and thought to myself, tonight I'll get away.

Night came and fell asleep. In the middle of the night my owner came. He put a cage over me and left. When I woke up I found I was trapped. I tried to get out but couldn't. Then I saw my owner coming. All of a sudden up went the cage. That's when I ran, but BANG, I was shot. I was taken into the house, stuffed; cooked and eaten. I sure hope they liked me, otherwise, I was shot for nothing.
