A "double standard"

PICKERING - A Pickering mother of two says she'll go to jail rather than pay a $300 fine.

Vivien Smith-Hiltz, 31, was charged with driving while impaired on the night of August 21. In the court case that followed, she was convicted.

In a prepared statement, the woman, a night club singer, said she wouldn't pay the fine because "I don't want to give money to a government."
