WHITEVALE — It's nice to know that in a changing community like Whitevale, some things never change.

An example of permanence in the hamlet is the fact Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hornshaw have lived there fifty years. On Saturday, this well-known and highly-respected couple celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

To mark the occasion, a reception in their honor was held at Fernando's in The Village Shoppes, Markham. Many people attended, some from a distance.

Mr. Hornshaw was born at Green River, the son of Fred and Hester Hornshaw. Mrs. Hornshaw, the former Muriel Spears, was born in Toronto but moved with her parents, Adam and Jessie Spears to Atha at an early age. Her father served as reeve of Pickering Township. They both attended Green River Public School but not at the same time. They also attended Green River Baptist Church.

Harold and Muriel became more formally acquainted following a New Year's Eve party at Grey's Hall, Green River. They were married in Weston, Nov. 17, 1928.

The couple remember their honeymoon trip like it was yesterday. They travelled to Orchard Park, New York in a brand new '28 Chevrolet and on their return, took up residence "in the little white house" across the road from their present home. Rent was $4 a month.

Mr. Hornshaw worked with his father on a 154 acre farm where the Herongate Barn Theatre is now located and still helps out there at weekend auctions. Eleven years ago last July they moved into their new bungalow that Mr. Hornshaw helped build.

Harold and Muriel are proud of their family that includes two daughters, Catherine (Mrs. George Bruce) of Ottawa; Marilyn (Mrs. Fred Carter) of Whitevale and one son, Herbert of Markham. They have eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Prior to their anniversary 'open house', they were thrilled to learn that one granddaughter, Catherine Baroud and her 15 month old son, Shaddy, would be coming all the way from Lebanon to attend the celebration.

Mrs. Hornshaw has one brother, Harrison Spears on Kipling Avenue, Toronto. Mr. Hornshaw has one brother, Joseph of Whitevale and four sisters, Gertrude (Mrs. Murray Milroy) and Irene (Mrs. Campbell Anthony), both of Markham; Marion (Mrs. Alfred Kays), Pickering and Helen (Mrs. Tom Hueston), Toronto.

The honored couple were the recipients of many cards, bouquets of flowers and beautiful gifts. The Tribune is pleased to join with relatives and friends in wishing them many more years of health and happiness together.
