

Spartans edge Langstaff

STOUFFVILLE — At Friday night's game at the SDSS gym the Senior Boys basketball team beat Langstaff 55-46.

This was a real cliff-hanger with Langstaff hanging on to a ten point lead for the first three quarters of the game. It was not surprising as the Spartans missed an awful lot of chances and were inaccurate with their shooting.

Prior to the last quarter coach Wayne Nugent must have had some very hard things to say because when the Spartans came on they were completely transformed. In fact it was difficult to believe that this was the same team. Their shooting improved one hundred percent and they hustled the Langstaff boys right out of the game and certainly deserved to win if only for making such a spectacular comeback.

Will it, or won't it go in? A moment of apprehension for Langstaff in their game against the Spartans in their Friday night game at SDSS. Spartans won the game 55 to 46. —Jim Holt

Markham trounce Sound

STOUFFVILLE — Markham Millionaires downed Stouffville's Sound and Music in their Atom League game 4-2 at the arena on Thursday night.

Although trailing 2-0 after the first period, Stouffville managed to get it all together in the second when Timmy Evans netted two, with assists from Daryl May on the first and Dave Fockler on the second.

However, it was not to be and the second period ended with Stouffville trailing 3-2.

Going into the 3rd it looked as if Stouffville might just tie the game, as their attack became much more organized, but Markham on a power play put one more in the net and it was 4-2 over.
