Feeder attracts birds

By JENNIE JOHNSON - Mr. and Mrs. George Pickett receive a great deal of pleasure from the birds that come to their feeders located outside their living room window. Blue Jays and Evening Grosbeaks arrive daily in great numbers along with Chickadees and several pairs of Cardinals.

The Mt. Zion and Greenwood Youth Group enjoyed a toboggan and ski gathering on the Edgar Fiss property recently. Later, they participated in a cook-out around a bonfire.

Several boys from St. John's School at Claremont enjoyed a snowshoeing trek through the woods north of the Glen.

Joan Tribbeck was an overnight guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Pickett.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dickerson entertained several young people of the community to a luncheon, Sunday. The occasion was Christopher's 4th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Simmonds of Toronto were at their cottage, Saturday. While there, they enjoyed a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jones.

Joan Tribbeck spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Surge Dubreuil and sons in Oshawa and helped grandson Todd celebrate his birthday.

Music?

UXBRIDGE - What's music to some, is noise to others.

Neighbours beside the Free Methodist Church in Uxbridge, claim sounds coming from the organ there, fall into the category of the latter. One resident recently complained to police.

The Reach Street man said he had endured the throbbing sounds every Sunday, and again on Tuesday since September. He indicated he could stand it no longer. "Apparently it's reached an unbearable level," a police spokesman said.
