The world may forget your face but your seat will live on.

And on. And on. For a very long time. And very comfortably, too, we might add, in the best home in the musical world: New Massey Hall. Where we'll take care of your endowed seat as if it were our very own. Forever.

Think of the countless people in the years to come who will enjoy not just the classical music but the jazz, the rock, the pop, the country, and much more, while sitting in your seat. Now, that's not only living on, that's being useful.

More than that, when you endow a seat in New Massey Hall, you will be helping make possible the construction of what will be acoustically and architecturally the finest musical centre in all of Canada, if not in the whole world. It will be more than a landmark. It will be a living, ongoing event.

And what does it take from you to insure that your seat will be part of all this? A contribution of $1,000 or more, (or if you prefer, a pledge of $200 a year for 5 years) will do the trick. And your contribution is tax deductible.

Just say the word (the word is 'endow') and we'll put your name on one of our seats in perpetuity. If you prefer, you can honour someone else: an individual, a married couple, a family, a specific group, a volunteer organization, or an association. You tell us.

Most solicitations for funds ask you to have a heart. New Massey Hall asks you to have a seat. With your name on it.

For more information return this coupon. Or mail your cheque to: New Massey Hall Fund, 20 King Street West, Toronto, Ontario M5H 1C4.
