

Take part in tourney

YORK REGION — The Police Commission of York Region gave its blessing to a police hockey team taking part in a tournament at Ottawa, March 8 and 9. Members approved payment of a $375 registration fee. Last year, the entry finished in second place. This time around, they hoped to take the Title. According to Chief Bruce Crawford, the officers participate on their own time and at their own expense. "We don't give them any time off at all," said Chief Crawford. "An excellent idea" was the way Commissioner Gladys Rolling described the force's involvement in the tourney. She commended the men on their enthusiasm. "They couldn't do any worse than Team N.H.L.," observed Board member Lou Wainright.

Night school student learns quickly

Bonnie MacAloney, Lloyd Street, is enrolled in a cake decorating night course at Stouffville Secondary School. While she's a consistent winner in the Markham Fair's Domestic Science class, she says cake decorating's new to her. Judging from her impressive work displayed at the school's "Open House," March 15, she learns very quickly. Norma Leonard of the Stouffville Bakery teaches the course. —Ed Schroeter.

Around Town

Training Course

Valerie How, and children, Suzanne, Virginia, Jonathan and Christopher, recently welcomed Michael back from New York, where he has completed an investment dealers training course with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith Inc., the largest investment firm in the United States. Michael is with Merrill Lynch, Royal Securities Limited, in downtown Toronto, and he has now qualified to carry out all types of investment transactions, both here in Canada and in the United States, including the Chicago Board Options Exchange. Although he enjoyed his stay in New York, Michael is certainly glad to be home again. "It's nice to be back in the peace and quiet of Stouffville" he said.
