

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell sign the register following their marriage in St. Andrew's United Church, Markham. The bride is the former Louise (Betty-Lou) Dart, daughter of Mrs. Dart and the late Roy Dart, RR 2, Markham. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bell, RR 2, Stouffville. Following a honeymoon cruise in the Caribbean, the happy couple have taken up residence at Mount Albert.

Betty-Lou and John Bell Honeymoon on cruise ship

In a beautiful candlelight service at St. Andrew's United Church, Markham, Nov. 4, 1976, Louise (Betty-Lou) Dart, daughter of Mrs. Dart and the late Roy Dart, RR 2, Markham, was united in marriage to Ernest John Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bell, RR 2, Stouffville.

Rev. Donald Parr performed the ceremony amid a setting of candleabra and fresh flowers. The bride, given in marriage by her brother John, was lovely in an original gown of candlelight crepe de chine chiffon on taffeta fashioned in Victorian style with yoke inserts and long tight cuffs of imported Huber lace and tiny covered buttons. The gown had a circular train trimmed in lace.

Attending the bride were Sandra Mills, maid of honor; Linda Betz and Katherine Turner, sisters of the groom; Gwendolyn Sheridan and Patricia Forgie were her bridesmaids. They were attractive in long gowns of burgundy and creme lace with bouquets and hairpieces of silk flowers in pink tones. The pretty flowergirls were Jacqueline Dart and Kristina Fraas, nieces of the bride; Stacy Betz, niece of the groom. They wore quaint dresses of creme shade with sashes of burgundy. They carried baskets of pink flowers.

The groom's attendants were Ralf Smalley, best man; Frank Roberts, Brian Hughes, Michael Whitman and Geoffrey Roy, ushers. The soloist was Willa De Guerre of Markham, cousin of the bride.

A reception followed at the Ballantrae Community Centre. There, the bride's mother received her guests, dressed in a taupe crepe-de-chine gown. Her corsage was burgundy silk roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother, wearing a turquoise chiffon gown with a corsage of blue and white flowers. The happy couple enjoyed a honeymoon cruise in the Caribbean. They are now residing at Mount Albert.
