

Women's Spring Break Registrations accepted now

YORK REGION — "Taking Charge Of Your Life" is the theme of Seneca College's popular program Women's Spring Break.

The seminar takes place on Wed., May 16 at King Campus, beginning at 9 a.m. and extending through to four.

Last year, more than two hundred pre-registrations were received, program co-ordinator Eileen Macrae told The Tribune, with seventy having to be turned down due to lack of accommodation.

Forms are available at the Whitchurch-Stouffville Public Library.

The morning session begins with a film entitled "Early Bird Special" followed by five discussion groups under the headings of: Anger and Depression, Worry and Guilt, Women and Stress, Conflicts in Communication and Dealing with Your Reality.

Following noon lunch, the guest speaker, T.V. personality Dini Petty will address the gathering on the day's theme,

"Taking Charge Of Your Life"

In the afternoon, seven discussion groups have been arranged. They are: Problem Solving Techniques, Decision-Making and Goal Setting, How To Manage Your Time vs. Great Expectations, Acceptance of Self and Body Image, Communication, Saying What You Mean and Meaning What You Say and Value Yourself.

Back by popular request are the following interest groups: You and the Law, The Adolescent Dilemma, and Pack Your Own Chute, a film and discussion.

The 1979 Women's Spring Break Committee includes the following: Elaine Bisset, Lynn Douglas, Ruth Gaal, Charlie Gullickson, Jane-Anne McClelland, Heather McKenzie, Bess Payne, Skip Perryman, Sheila Roy, Bea Salmond, Ann Sarka, Danielle Volpe, Anita Waite and Joyce Watson.

The registration fee is $10 and this includes lunch and conference materials. For additional information, call 895-1581 or 884-9901.

Newlyweds reside in Stouffville

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ratcliff sign the register following their marriage, Feb. 9 at St. Patrick's Parish, Markham. The bride is the former Maureen Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grahame Hudson and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ratcliff. Following a honeymoon in Bermuda, the couple have taken up residence in Stouffville.

Around Town

Birthday party

Andrew Barnett of Dickson's Hill was honored at a surprise party, April 13 at the home of Cathy Sheppard, Bloomington on the occasion of his 18th birthday. In addition to the guest, others present included Sandra Eby, Esther Wideman, Doug Lang, Tim Brazier, Charles Liddle, Scott May, Sandy McLeod, Christine Simons, Chris Cressal and Susan Thomas.

P.C. Office

Progressive Conservative M.P., Sinclair Stevens, has opened a campaign office in the Stouffville Plaza.

Lions' Bike-a-Thon

Sat., April 21 and Sat., April 28 are the last registration dates for the Lions-sponsored Bike-a-Thon, May 5. The location is the basement of the former Post Office (Silver Jubilee Club), Main and Market Streets. Registration times extend from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Pledge sheets may be picked up at Aiken's Pharmacy or Card's Hardware.

Need volunteers

The Community Association for Riding for the Disabled (C.A.R.D.) urgently needs volunteers for Thursday and Friday mornings, 9 a.m. to 12 noon, to assist disabled persons ride horses. A car is a necessity. The location is Bloomington Road and the 5th concession, Whitchurch-Stouffville. Call 293-8704 after 4 p.m.

To be commissioned

Mrs. Mae Symes, Park Drive North, Stouffville, has received word that her niece, Laura Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Craig, 3 Bloomfield Road, Toronto, will be commissioned as a lieutenant in the Salvation Army, June 16.

Tells of travels

Brian Baker, Tenth Line South, Stouffville, told of his "working holiday" around Europe when he spoke and showed slides at a meeting of the Horticultural Society Monday night in the lower auditorium of the Stouffville United Church. Guest soloist was Donna Alsop.

New location

The New Image hair styling salon, 60 Main Street West, will soon be moving to the site of The Linen Cupboard, 37 Main Street West. The present location has been purchased by the Conservation Authority for its stream channelization project.

Home from Florida

Bert and Ivy Sears and Ivy's mother, Mrs. Hicks, have returned to their home on Rupert Avenue after spending the winter in Florida.

Choir on T.V.

Stouffville's High School choir, under the direction of staff teacher, Jim Rehill, was featured on T.V. Cable 10, Richmond Hill, last week. Those persons who have not had an opportunity to hear this fine group of young people, may do so, Sunday, May 6, when they appear at the 7 p.m. anniversary service in St. James Presbyterian Church.

Honored at shower

Kathy Turner, an extremely popular local girl and a bride-to-be this month, was honored at still another shower, April 11 at her parents' home.

Appreciate support

Jean Mann, leader of the Stouffville Brownies and Guides, wishes to express appreciation to the girls' parents and the public for their support of a recent bazaar, April 7 in St. James Presbyterian Church. The event raised close to $700.

Married 30 years

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pike, Tenth Line, Markham, on the occasion of their 30th wedding anniversary, April 16.

90th birthday

Congratulations to K.R. "Shine" Davis, Church Street North, Stouffville on the occasion of his 90th birthday, marked April 9. Mr. Davis, one of the town's best known and most respected residents, has weathered the winter in pretty good shape and hopes soon to get back down on Main Street to do a little "girl watching" when things warm up this spring.

From Michigan

Tom and Helen McKenzie of Belleville, Michigan, spent a few days recently with Mrs. C.G. McKenzie, Harold Avenue. Tom and Mr. McKenzie were brothers.

Bowling awards

Members of the Youth Bowling League in Stouffville (Bantam and Junior), will hold their annual Awards Night, Friday, May 11 at 6:30 p.m., in Latham Hall. Following the presentation of trophies, a dance will conclude the evening.

Summer Bowling League

Persons wishing to take part in a Summer Bowling League (mixed), should add their names to the sheet already posted at the local alleys. The league will operate Wednesday and Thursday evenings from 8 to 10 p.m., beginning May 16. Contact Chauncey Tuck for additional information.

Not leaving town

Murray and Olive Daniels will be moving from their home on Park Drive North, but will not be leaving town. They are planning to take up residence in a new apartment on Main Street.

"Welcome", appreciated

The "welcome" extended to Petrolia hockey fans and players, posted on a lighted sign in front of Patrick Motors, last week, caught the eyes of visiting spectators and was much appreciated. Unfortunately (for Stouffville), the "welcome" extended onto the ice where Stouffville lost the game and eventually the series.

Visits daughter

Mrs. Mervin Bunker, formerly of Altona, visited last week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Williams.

Home from South

Mr. and Mrs. David Hadden and family, Baker Avenue, Stouffville, are home following a holiday in Florida.

Team captain

Doug Todd, one of the top players to graduate out of Stouffville's minor hockey ranks, has been named captain of the University of Michigan hockey team for the 1979-80 season. Doug will be entering his 4th year in a Bachelor of Liberal Arts Course with a Business Option. The university is located in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Out of hospital

Bill Pegg, Baker Avenue, Stouffville, was released from hospital, Friday and is feeling much better.

Plan reunion

The next meeting of the Reunion Committee is Tues., April 24 at 7:30 p.m., in the High School.

Florida holiday

Jean Davidson, Ninth Line South, enjoyed a recent holiday trip to Florida.

Father passes

Sympathy is expressed to Elinor (Mrs. Ted Wood) of Stouffville in the passing of her father, Douglas Scott Brown of Unionville, April 11 at the age of 71. Other survivors include his wife, the former Mary Allen; a second daughter, Gwenn (Mrs. Don Boyington), Markham and four grandchildren, Sherry (Mrs. Larry France) and Scott Boyington; Ted Jr., and Randy Wood. Service was held from the Dixon-Garland Funeral Chapel, Markham, on Saturday with interment, St. Philip's Cemetery, Unionville.

Friendship Club

The Stouffville Friendship Club will meet on Thursday evening (tonight) in the Legion Hall. Senior citizens wishing transportation should call 640-2443.

Elected Chairman

Charlie Warden, RR 1, Gormley, is the new chairman of the Stouffville Parks and Recreation Committee, succeeding Lloyd Kerswill who resigned at the end of 1978. The vice-chairman is Cliff Dunkeld, Stouffville. The election took place at a meeting, April 11. The committee welcomed new member, John Hutchinson of Bloomington.

Annual Meeting

The Ontario Association for Children with Learning Disabilities (York Region Chapter), will hold its annual meeting, Wed., May 2 at 8 p.m., in the Richvale Community Centre, south of Richmond Hill and west of Yonge Street. The guest speaker will be Sylvia Bleiweis. Theme of the meeting is "The Year Of The Child".

Simpsons Great MAY SALE starts today

Spring is so much brighter when you shop Simpsons. Especially during our Great May Sale (now through May 5). You're sure to find something special for yourself and every member of your family. Your home, too. And remember, Mother's Day is Sunday, May 13. You're sure to find something special for her, too. So head for your nearest Simpsons and check out the fantastic savings and terrific buys:

- women's and girls' fashions
- footwear
- men's and boys' fashions
- sporting goods
- home entertainment
- hardware
- and a whole lot more!

We expect this to be our biggest May Sale ever, so please shop early for the best selection. Shop in person, phone or write. And be sure to pick up the first in a series of four May Sale sections at your nearest Simpsons.

Simpsons

SIMPSONS FLOWER SHOP

Send a message ... to wish someone a happy birthday, or an anniversary. Or just to say "hello" ... with a fresh spring bouquet of beautiful flowers from Simpsons Flower Shop.

Shopping at Simpsons SHERWAY GARDENS?

The "Elizabeth Arden Salon" has all kinds of beautiful ideas for you! From an exciting new cut, to a beauty make-over ... right down to a foot-pampering pedicure. It's time for a beautiful change ... for spring! Lower Level.

Exciting Fashion Expressionism expressed in a new and contemporary way. Where else? The Expression Shop. It's Your ind of fashion shop! Mall Level.

These are just some of the "extras" ... there's much more in store for you at Simpsons! Watch for future columns in this newspaper ... they'll help you discover Simpsons!

Simpsons ... always at your service

Simpsons is much more than a full-line department store. Sure we have all the necessities for your home, your fashion looks. But we'd also like to point out to you a few of the little "extras" that make Simpsons one of the great stores of the world!

At Simpsons Scarborough Town Centre, you'll find THE OUT-DOOR SHOP ... ready for the great outdoors and specializing in all your gardening and camping needs. (Lower Level, South entrance).

AS SEEN AT THE HOME SHOW AT THE C.N.E.

How to translate classic design for contemporary living.

Colours and accessories can always be negotiated while function is the important thing. Illustrated: Settler's Dry Sink, Cottage Mirror.

FERGUS
160 St. David St. S. (Hwy. 6), (519) 843-4710
OAKVILLE
301 Robinson St., (416) 842-2611
THORNHILL
7775 Yonge St. at Hwy. 7B, (416) 889-2700
BROUGHAM-PICKERING
Blox 84, at Hwy. 7, (416) 683-1335
OTTAWA
Hwy. 75 at St. Lawrence, (613) 836-4512