GORMLEY — The church played an important part in her life. At Mt. Pisgah United, she was the organist for the congregation. She also taught in the Sunday School and directed a junior choir. When this country church closed, she and her husband became involved in the work at Wesley United. She enjoyed her association with the Gormley Women's Institute where she held the office of president. She was immediate past-president of the district W.I.

Mrs. Smith, the former Elva Pattenden, passed away peacefully in her sleep, April 14 at York County Hospital where she'd been a patient more than two months.

Born at Vandorf, one of five in the family of Alfred and Della Pattenden, she moved to the 3rd concession of Whitchurch Twp., following her marriage and farmed there with her husband, first on the east side of the road and for the past 30 years at their present place.

Surgery and a series of treatments followed at Princess Margaret Hospital but her condition gradually worsened. In spite of failing health, she maintained a cheerful outlook on life.

Her family was a great source of personal pride. A daughter and son-in-law, Shirley and Wayne Wright reside at RR. 3, Newmarket. A son, Murray and a second daughter, Margaret are at home. She has one grandson, Adam Wright.

One brother, Garnet Pattenden, lives at Hawkestone. Two others,

Clarence and Chester are deceased. Two sisters survive, Irene (Mrs. Clarence Foote) of Lindsay and Muriel (Mrs. Arthur Preece) at RR. 3, Newmarket.

Rev. Arthur Thomson of Wesley United Church conducted the service, Tuesday afternoon, assisted by Rev. James Cober of Heise Hill Brethren in Christ Church. Interment was in Aurora Cemetery. The pall bearers were Elwood Pattenden, Murray Stephenson, Ernie Smith, Ted Smith, Murray Ferguson and Harold Botham.
