Christian Fellowship

Reunited again

BY MURIEL HOOVER
STOUFFVILLE — At Stouffville High School back in 1956-57, a new club was organized called Inter-School Christian Fellowship or I.S.C.F., as it was known to the students.

The purpose was "to know Christ and make Him known". Members met every Wednesday after school where Bible studies, songs and speakers were enjoyed. Average attendance was twenty-five.

The first executive included: President - Paul Hisey; Vice-President - Laura Mae Brubacher; Secretary - Muriel Byer; Treasurer - Gordon Burkholder; Social Convener - Robert Stover; Pianist - Norma Steckley and Carolaine Ogilvy; Sponsor - Mrs. William Rae.

Through the years, many students have participated in this organization and

These students served on the executive of Stouffville High School's Christian Fellowship in 1956-57. Many of them will be back in Stouffville, June 23, when S.D.S.S. holds its 25th anniversary reunion.

It's encouraging to know that I.S.C.F. still plays a part in the life of Stouffville High today. Associations made back then and since will be rekindled when S.D.S.S. holds its 25th anniversary reunion, Sat., June 23. Hope to see you there.

Married 50 years

STOUFFVILLE — Bill and Nellie Mackay, 19th Avenue, RR. 1, Stouffville, marked their 50th wedding anniversary quietly, Tuesday.

Mrs. Mackay is still recovering from a broken hip suffered in a fall last December.

Both are natives of the British Isles, Bill from Lairg, Scotland and wife Nellie from Folkstone, Kent, England. He came to Canada in 1914. Mrs. Mackay arrived in 1928. They were married fifty years ago in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Knowlton, Quebec.

Bill and Nellie moved to the area twenty years ago. Now retired, he was employed at the Altona Duck Farm. He busies himself in the garden.

"We move so slowly, it keeps us busy just catching up on things," he joked. An only son, Jack, lives with them. He's a long-time employee with C.P. Express.

The neighbors are wonderful, Mrs. Mackay says. Mary and Lillian Davidson call around regularly, also Joyce Foote, a resident across the road. Bill and Nellie were pleased to receive a message of congratulations from Lieut. Governor Pauline McGibbon. Word on the anniversary was passed on to her by York-Centre M.P.P., Alf Stong.

Hope church will remain open

GOODWOOD — To close or not to close, that is the question facing members and adherents of Goodwood United Church. A meeting to discuss the seriousness of the situation was held following the service, Sunday, and again Monday night. Folks and funds are required to keep the church afloat.

The Goodwood community was saddened when news was received of the passing of Mrs. George Todd, a long-time resident in the village. Mrs. Todd had enjoyed good health until a year ago when she suffered a heart attack. Service was held from Love's Funeral Home, Uxbridge with interment, Goodwood Cemetery. The U.C.W. will hold its general meeting, May 23 at 1:30 p.m., in Goodwood United Church. Members are asked to bring clothing for the Fred Victor Mission.

Baptist "Wake-a-Thon"

Young People raise $100

CLAREMONT — Recently, the Youth Group of the Claremont Baptist Church held a Wake-a-Thon at the home of Stan and Mary McMullen, Claremont, RR 1. Approximately $100 was raised through pledges. The money will go to assist in bringing a 3rd world delegate to Toronto in 1980 for the World Alliance Convention. Participants in the "stay awake" marathon" included - Ron McMullen, John Burnell, Ted Burnell, Kim Evans, Janice Hall, Gail Albert, Gail Murray and Susan Thomas. The target was twelve full hours. Five of the eight young people went the distance.

With the softball season about to start, several Claremont teams are short of uniforms. Players from last year who haven't done so, are asked to hand in their sweaters to Sandra Redshaw (649-2515). The Altona Co-operative Nursery School Inc., is holding an "open-house" and registration, June 6 and 7 from 9:30 a.m. to noon in the Claremont Community Hall.

A trophy in memory of the late Les Parker, will be awarded a Grade 8 student at Claremont Public School who shows exceptional ability in English. The presentation will be made at the Graduation Program next month.

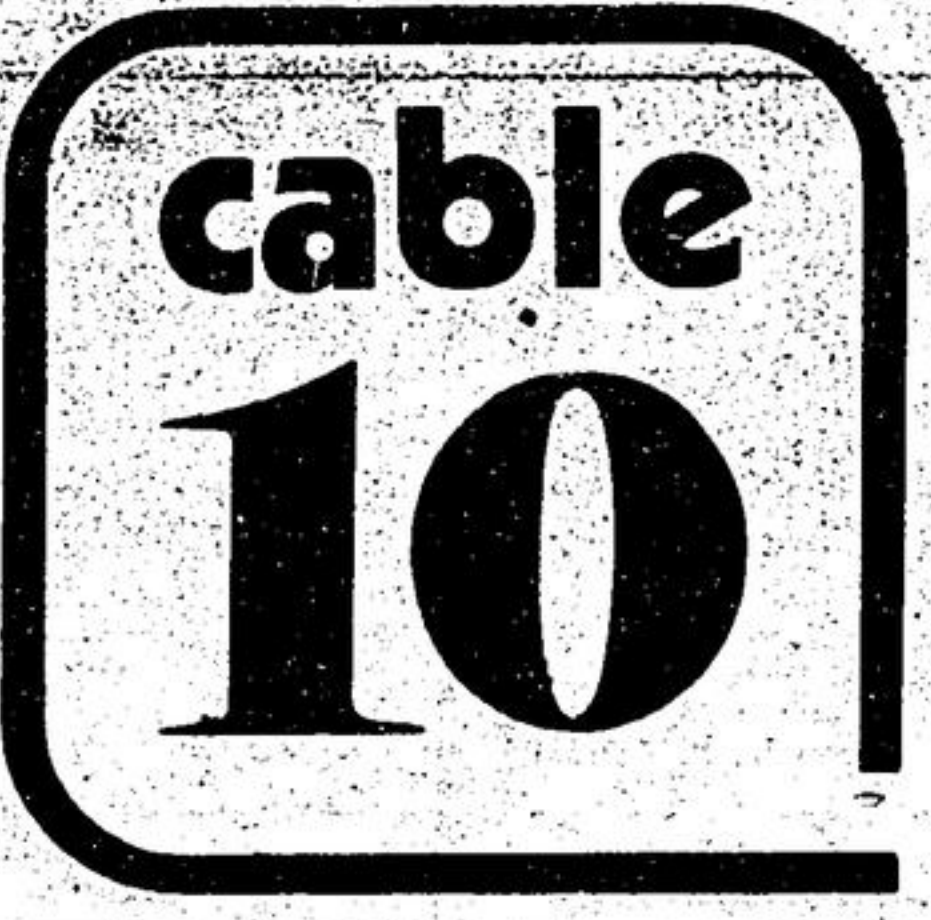

There was an error in last week's column with respect to an upcoming wedding, June 2. The bride-to-be is Lorna Patterson, not Joan, as reported here. Her fiancé is Rodney Evans.

The staff at Claremont Public School are pleased with the performance of their Reach For The Top teams in recent competition with students from Valley View School, Greenwood. The Grade 8 entry included - Lorna Tapscott, Darlene Gammage, Reiner Ehlers and Vincent Morgan. Grade 7 competitors were - Laura Vale, Richard Brooks, Gary McMullen and Shawn McKillop. The Altona Cooperative Nursery School Inc., held a successful tea and bake sale, May 9 in the Claremont Community Hall. Lucky draw winners were: Mary Johnson of Claremont, theatre and dinner tickets for two at Herongate; Rudi Habegger of Toronto, two Blue Jay baseball tickets and Jim Wilson of Claremont, passes to the Famous Players Theatre in Sheridan Mall, Pickering. Mrs. Mait Anderson, Mrs. Wm. Evans, Mrs. Harry Porter and Dr. N.F. Tomlinson attended the Area 6 Harmony Barbershop Competition at Markham, Saturday. Quartette finalists were: The Right Blend of Markham, 1st; The Sound Effects, Toronto, 2nd and Simcoe Sounds Quartette, Barrie, 3rd. In the chorus competition it was Barrie, Woodville and Sudbury in that order.
