

School's top athlete chosen May prom queen

Eighteen year old Judy Sackfield, looked on by many as Stouffville Dist. Secondary School's top female athlete, added another jewel to her crown, Friday, when she was chosen 1979 May Prom Queen of S.D.S.S. The Grade 12 student was crowned by last year's winner, Sally Courage. Judy's attendants were Kelly Glenn, 17 and Nicky Palmer, 18. The school's gymnasium was beautifully decorated for the event with flowers and plants generously donated by Jack Burrows of Farmer Jack's Gardens, R. R. 1, Unionville.

Loved her church

CHURCHILL — Rev. Paul Ripley conducted the funeral service, Thursday, from the Stouffville Pentecostal Church, for Mrs. Roy Clark, R. R. 3, Stouffville, following her passing, May 14 in Scarborough Centenary Hospital.

It was fitting that his message to the bereaved, should have been spoken there. For the church and organizations within the church, played a vital part in the life of the deceased. In fact, the farm, her family and her church occupied much of her interest and time.

Mrs. Clark, the former Blanche Hennessey, was born at Picton, the daughter of Martha and the late Jasper Hennessey. She was married 31 years ago and had lived on the family farm north of Churchill ever since.

She was proud of her children, two daughters, Dianne and Arlene (Mrs. Randy Dulude); one son, Larry and an only granddaughter, Lisa Dulude, all of Stouffville, R. R. 3.

Besides her husband Roy, she is also survived by eight brothers, Douglas, Allan, Merton, Dawson, Arnold, Donald, Peter and Findley, all of the Picton area and three sisters, Effie at Newmarket; Frankie, Toronto and Margaret at Bowmanville.

Her mother still resides at Picton.

Pall-bearers included deacons of the church—Jim, Michell, Willie Kline, Ray, Laird, Ed Campbell, Charles Oxley and Garnet Rae. Interment was at Churchill Cemetery.

Garbage everywhere
Over the weekend, the area near the Town garage in Stouffville was turned into one huge garbage dump, with huge mounds of refuse piled around the outside of the Spademan bins that had been filled to overflowing. There was everything there from the remains of a piano to a couple of chesterfield chairs. Municipal employees expected they'd have to press their tractor and loader into service to clean up the mess.

Do I care? My answer is YES or I wouldn't have taken the time to write this letter. Sincerely, MARGARET CONNER, Stouffville, R.R. 3.

Editor's Mail

Raps 'filth' books

Dear Editor:
I wish to share a growing concern in my heart for our precious young people in this, the "Year of the Child".
Only recently, we celebrated Mother's Day. Father's Day is just ahead. I'm wondering just how many of you parents send your children off to school, thinking, like myself, that everything, although different from our day, is good and acceptable.

after page of filth and profanity, the like of which you, Mr. Editor, would never publish in this newspaper. If you did, I'm sure your phone would never cease to ring, readers would be so upset.
Yet, this is the kind of thing that's happening to YOUR children. And I feel we have the right and the responsibility to protest and protect our sons and daughters from it.

Not all teachers fit this category and I commend the few who still stand firm to truth and righteousness; who care and put in long hours; who give of themselves in a noble profession; who choose good things for our youth and reject the bad.
My heart is heavy when I see wee infants with trusting faces, outstretched hands and busy feet, knowing that, in five years' time, they'll be thrust into an educational system that is bent on crippling and breaking down, rather than building up young lives and minds.

Parents, do you care? Teachers, do you care?
Do I care? My answer is YES or I wouldn't have taken the time to write this letter. Sincerely, MARGARET CONNER, Stouffville, R.R. 3.
