

Beautiful quilts on sale at Markham Spring Festival

Quilts like the one held here by Fair Queen Cathy Case, will be on sale at the Markham Spring Festival, Saturday, on the grounds of Markham Fair, 18th Avenue and McCowan Road. The show, likely to become an annual event, opens at 10 a.m. and continues through to six. The entire General Exhibits Building will be crowded with interesting displays.

Reunion Committee

Look for students

MARKHAM — Only five weeks to go; Markham Dist. High School's 25th anniversary reunion.

To make the event complete, invitations are being sent out to as many former students as can be contacted. However, addresses are still missing on the following who were enrolled in Grade 9 during the year 1968.

Anyone who can assist in tracing these people, is asked to call Louise MacLennan at 294-2358.

Enjoyable recital

By Marlon Sandle
VIC. SQUARE — Parents and friends attending the music recital of students under the instruction of Coral Barker and Audrey Horner, were thrilled with the skills displayed by each of the 26 pupils who took part. The concert was held May 14 in the Victoria Square United Church.
Mardi Tyndal was the guest speaker at this month's meeting of the U.C.W. in the United Church. She spoke of her work within the church, a talk that prompted discussion on ways and means of encouraging more people to take an interest in such programs. Special music was provided by pianists Mary and Joanne Boynton. Mrs. Robert Boyd was in charge of the meeting.

A complete recovery is wished for Edith Boyd following surgery in Sunnybrook Hospital, Toronto.
Wedding anniversary congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill, married 41 years, June 1.
