

Fashions on parade

By Jim Thomas
STOUFFVILLE—
When it comes to ladies' fashions, we men are out of our element. We tend to be more interested in the model than what she's modeling.

Such could not be concluded, May 30 when the Ladies Auxiliary of the Stouffville Legion sponsored a show called "Fashions Ahoy" in Latcham Hall. It was an eye-popper, even for an apathetic male like myself. The outfits, all from the Marguerite Shoppe in Stouffville, were great and the models—gorgeous.

Participants in the promenade included: Patti Davidson, Sally Grey, Mary Hamerston, Elizabeth Harris, Jacki Hassard, Melinda Hodgson, Almee Johnston, Loretta Lavell, Dorothy Mehaffey, Faye Minton, Kim Rasken, Wendy Rasken, Bertha Slaughter, Yvonne Spensley, Val Stapley, Hazel Stover, Jackie Turner and Clara White.

The commentators were Charlotte Logvinoff and Joyce Spensley. Between changes, solo selections were provided by Anne Payne and Mary Harris. Background organ music was provided by Clarion Baker. Nevil Hodgson was captain of the good ship "S.S. Stouffville".

The floral arrangements and set design were beautiful, thanks to the ideas and assistance of Bruce and Bunny Burton of Bunny's Flowers, Main Street, East. Footwear was provided by Murray Wilson Shoes, Main Street and hair styling by Mimi's Hair Artistry in Success Square; sound by Stouffville Sound and Music, Main Street and lighting by Mel Gornik, Manitoba Street, Stouffville.

Two of the nineteen models in "Fashions Ahoy", May 30 at Stouffville's Latcham Hall were - Elizabeth Harris (left) of Glad Park Avenue and Patti Davidson, Tenth Line South. A capacity crowd attended the show, sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary, Branch 459, of the Stouffville Legion.

Logvinoff described the attendance. The committee, headed by herself and Peggy Dixon, could have sold more tickets but the hall could accommodate no more people. "The response was excellent," Mrs. Logvinoff said. Others who assisted with the show were - Gladys Clark-son, Doreen Goudie,

Betty Grove, Dorothy Huard, Eleanor Johnston, Rhonda Milos, Ruth Sheppard, Helen Taylor, Bev Turner, Bruce Burton, Art Dixon, Ray-McFadden, Chuck

Spensley and John Roberts. "Proceeds from the event will go to the Stouffville World Child Day program, school bursaries and charities."

Dummies not library staff

If you should happen to hear passers-by mention, this Saturday, that they are on their way to see the dummies along at the library, please don't assume they're referring to the staff. It so happens, some genuine ventriloquist dummies are performing in our Latcham Gallery that day along with Lori Knight, a human Ms. who assists in their act. Ms.

Knight is a professional entertainer who hails from Richmond Hill and her excellent show launches the "World Child Day" activities in town at 10 a.m., June 9. The Ontario Forestry Association is sponsoring a Smokey Bear Reading Club for children, to promote good reading and awareness of forest fire prevention. Enrollment, at the library, is limited to 25 children. Each receives a bookmark and a registration card to record the nature and conservation books which must be read before a certificate is awarded.

Seniors' Week From children and their day, we sidestep quickly past the ages in between to senior citizens and their special week, June 16-23. The seniors in town are among our most prized and sprightly patrons and we're looking forward to hosting some of the events planned for their entertainment: Wednesday, 20th, there will be a special film showing at 4 p.m. and on Friday (22nd), Les Griffin, a young 84-year-old naturalist and super photographer will provide a fascinating commentary to his colour slides of the scenic Bruce Peninsula. From June 9 till the end of the month, members of the Silver Jubilee Art Class will display their paintings in our gallery. What better place, during the week's activities, to relax and who knows, preview the work of a coming

Appreciation

Dear Jim: Through The Tribune, I'd like to express a few words of appreciation to all those people who co-operated so fully to make the fashion show, May 30 so successful.

Hours of work were involved plus exceptional talent. Set make-up, in my opinion, is an important part of any fashion program, but often overlooked when it comes to credits.

To Bruce and Bunny Burton for the magnificent stage settings including the wedding scene; the boat scene and the island setting. Mrs. Burton recently opened a new shop called "Bunny's Flowers" at 59 Main Street East, near the firehall.

To Peggy Dixon for planning and organizing the event and to the "dressers" behind the scenes my thanks. Sure, Charlotte (Logvinoff) and I put a lot into the show too, but there are many others who also deserve a "bow". Joyce Spensley, The Marguerite Shoppe, Stouffville.
