Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rae, R. R. 2, Stouffville, were honored at a family gathering, Sunday, in the Fellowship Hall of Heise Hill Church. The occasion was their 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Rae have three sons, Garent in Stouffville; Ivan of Gormley; Harry at R.R. 2, Stouffville; two daughters, Jean (Mrs. Glenn Wideman), Gormley; Reta DeBoer, R.R. 2, Stouffville and seventeen grandchildren. Jim Thomas.

STOUFFVILLE — 5th concession of Whit-church in 1908, a property that's now the site of Whitchurch - Highlands School. When a brother Bert took over the farm in 1924, she moved to the Stouffville area.

Mrs. Davis, the former Wahneita Taun, had been extremely active within the community; wherever she could be of help to people. This included the Ringwood Christian Church where she taught Sunday School and assisted in the women's organizations. She was equally interested in the work of the Stouffville United Church where she was a member.

Born at Utica, one of five in the family of John William and Mary Ann Taun, she moved to the Prior to her marriage to the late Roy Grove, she taught school for a period of about ten years. Following the death of Mr. Grove, she married Arthur March and lived on Burkholder Street, Stouffville. When Mr. March passed away, she married Rev. Douglas Davis, well-known Stouffville United Church minister.

She was 75. Wahneita Davis was predeceased by three brothers, Harvey, Percy and Bert Taun and one sister, Mrs. Dave Crosier. A sister-in-law, Mrs. Bert Taun, resides at 115 Main Street East. Rev. Jim Carder and Rev. Paul Martin shared in the funeral service, Friday, from the O'Neill Chapel, Stouffville, with interment, Stouffville Cemetery. The pall bearers were Douglas Davis, Bruce Davis, Donald Davis, John Davis, Bill Young and Russell Prouse.

Marriage worked thanks to God

BALLANTRAE — "How God Restored Our Marriage", will be the subject of a testimony to be given by Rev. Stan Johnston and wife Marilyn, in the Ballantrae - Baptist Church, Sunday, June 24 at 7 p.m.

Stan and Marilyn stand as living examples of what God can do in what appeared to be a hopeless situation. Their talk should prove an inspiration to others.

At the same service, special music will be featured by "The Music Machine", featuring the Christ Crusaders and the "King's Kids" from the Gormley Missionary Church.

Twenty-six Confirmed

STOUFFVILLE — A baptism and confirmation service that included four children; twenty-one young people and five adults, was conducted by The Rt. Reverend K. Maguire at Christ Anglican Church, Sunday morning.

Bishop Maguire is formerly of Montreal, now living at Islington.

Received in baptism were Melissa Eden Boodram, Gillian Michelle Jones, Laura Heather Nelson and Caron Leigh Rathbone.

Confirmation candidates were Kenneth Robin Barnes, Blaine Edward Dobson, Anthony Garron, Murray Donald Giffen, Michael Scott Healey, Marc Jackson, John Howard Cummins Parent, Michael John Rehill, Deana Catherine Louise Barnes, Barbara Anne Britton, Susan Clark, Susan Anne Graham, Cori Jackson, Janet Elisabeth Lear, Anastasia Marie Lintner, Nancy Joan Malcolmson, Shelley Ann McMurray, Pamela Ann Moores, Clairann Morgan, Barbara Gail Murray, Allison Lesley Parsons, Dorothy Mae Beer, Ida Beer, Pete von Kaufmann, Ann Maxine McMurray and William Herbert Nailer.

One of the largest congregations in the church's history attended the worship, including many from St. Philip's Anglican Church, Unionville.

The present is important

STOUFFVILLE — "Celebrate Living" is the theme of Sr. Citizens' Week in Whitchurch-Stouffville and the subject of a sermon, Sunday, at Parkview Home, delivered by Rev. Ted Green of St. James Presbyterian Church.

He was assisted in the worship by Rev. Paul Martin of the Wideman Mennonite Church and the St. James Jr. Choir under the direction of Esther Powell.

Many live for the future, Rev. Green told his audience and many reflect only on the past.

"But things can be exciting in the present," he said. "Let's use the days we have now, to get the best out of life."

"Life is always a beginning, never an ending," he said.

The worship marked a beginning of seven days of events in Town, related to senior citizens;

"special times for special people," Rev. Green described it.

The auditorium at Parkview was filled for the service. Clarion Baker presided at the organ.
