Lorne and Alma Jones
Married fifty years

By ED SCHROETER
MT. ZION — Alma and Lorne Jones agree their golden wedding anniversary celebration was almost as exciting as their wedding day 50 years ago.
Their bridesmaid, Sadie Johnson, then Miss Evans, and their flower girl, Doris McLean, formerly Miss Baker, joined over 375 friends and relatives at their home south of Balsam for the occasion, just a few days before the real event.
Congratulations, both written and delivered in person, came from M.P.P. Scott Fennell; M.P.P. Wm. Newman and Pickering Mayor Jack Anderson.
Mr. Jones was born in 1905 at their present home, the son of Bert and Florence Jones. Alma was born in 1907, the daughter of Morgan and Elizabeth Evans, on a farm one mile east of Claremont.

While Mrs. Jones attended public school at Cedar Creek, Lorne was at Mount Zion. However, they both attended high school in Claremont, and this was where they met.
On June 29, 1929, they were married by Rev. H.R. Stevens of the Claremont Baptist Church, at Alma's home in Claremont. Later, they came to live on the farm, where they have resided ever since.
Lorne still farms, getting up at six in the morning and working a full day, helping son Murray with the dairy operation.
Both are proud of their heritage. Cedar Lane is a century farm, homesteaded in 1842 by Lorne's great grandfather, Joseph Jones. The sixth family generation is living there now.

One of their most prized anniversary gifts is a portrait of their farmhouse the children had commissioned.
Mr. Jones also enjoys writing. Five years ago he completed the task of assembling the entire history of his family. It took him several years to accomplish it. He's also treasurer of the Mount Zion Community Centre.
Active in the area, Alma hasn't missed a meeting of the Mount Zion U.C.W. in the last ten years. She also belongs to another ladies' church group at Mount Zion which she helped organize. Both are active members in the Mount Zion congregation.
The couple is modest in their appraisal of their generosity to others, but they frequently visit ill or elderly members of the community. Alma supplies home-made baked goods or crocheted items and quilts.

Lorne and Alma enjoy the company of neighbors and their close association with the Claremont Golden Age Club.

In fifty years, little has changed. They are still as happy as ever, and very proud of their family that includes Grant and Shirley Jones; Murray and Evelyn Jones; Ronald and Donna Jones, and Ken and Doreen Stickwood.
They have ten grandchildren.

Anniversary service

By JENNIE JOHNSON
GLEN MAJOR — It was a time for reminiscing when the 170th anniversary service was held at Friend's Meeting House, Quaker Hill. Erected in 1809, it was the first church built in Uxbridge Township. The timbers are hand-hewn and in good condition. The worship was conducted by Don McNaughton. Lloyd Wilson brought the message. Special music was rendered by the Kerry Family and Anne Tapscott.

Services at the Glen commence July 1 with worship at 7:30 p.m., and Sunday School at 11 a.m. Claude Simmonds is in charge.

Lorne and Alma Jones celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in their home at Mount Zion, Sunday. They were joined by over 375 friends and relatives for the occasion, including two of their wedding attendants, Sadie Johnson and Doris McLean. Ed Schroeter

Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hoover, Main Street East, Stouffville, were honored, Saturday, at a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the Missionary Church. The occasion was their Golden Wedding Anniversary. Hundreds of friends, neighbors and family relatives attended the gathering to offer congratulations. Lloyd and Ethel Hoover have one son, Vern, of Barrie and one daughter, Geraldine Underwood of Markham. They have six grandchildren, Leah, Olivia and Cecilia Hoover; Wanda, Wanita and Gregory Underwood. Married in Chicago fifty years ago, the well-known and highly-respected couple have resided in town since 1932. Mr. Hoover was born here. — Jim Thomas.
