Water fights and fun

By Elsie Boland
GOODWOOD — The Goodwood Baptist Church Sunday School picnic was reported to be the best ever held. The water fights were a feature of the event, having a very cooling effect on the children. Jerry Masney is still ministering here although living in Pickering. This leaves the parsonage temporarily vacant.

held on Friday at 2 p.m. on the lawn of Goodwood United Church. Contributions would be appreciated.

After ten long weeks, Neil Lumas is having the cast removed from his leg this week.

A speedy recovery is wished for Sherry Todd following recent surgery.

Mrs. Irene Alderson is spending a couple of weeks in Parkview Home. Visitors (and cards) would be welcomed.

Steven Noble underwent surgery this week in York County Hospital, Newmarket, following a tragic truck-car collision on Hwy. 47, north of Stouffville, early Monday morning. His many friends wish him a complete recovery.

The Goodwood Cemetery has a 'new look' this summer, thanks to one young man who has taken on this responsibility. Thanks also to Mr. Gribble for generous donations of flowers.

Volunteer upset

Dear Sirs:

As a volunteer who spends as much time and energy as my particular circumstances will allow on the activities that my own children are involved in, I am increasingly becoming more discouraged and frustrated at the current negative attitudes expressed by both this newspaper and by the Town's Council.

We, as I am sure I am not alone, feel we are being taken advantage of, and if the continued negative attitude prevails, the volunteer organized activities will find it so difficult to maintain them, that their existence could be in question.

Yours truly,
 Mrs. Gall Beckett
