

Bulk buying binge

Town Arena became a supermarket

Hundreds of shoppers went on a bulk buying binge at (of all places), the Stouffville Arena, last week, as Dominion Stores Limited turned the rink into one huge supermarket. Twenty-five truckloads of goods were "up for grabs" and economy-minded customers grabbed up all the bargains they could carry. Some, however, came only to look and the scenery in that regard wasn't hard to take either, like 19 year old Cathy Sneyd, a full-time cashier at a Dominion Store on McCowan Road, Scarborough. What was her impression of Stouffville? "The friendliest people I've ever met," she said.
