

The young enjoy the old at Markham antique show

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Markham hosted another successful Antique Exhibition and Sale, last week in the Markham Arena. Committee Chairman John Mair was pleased with the response. While the majority of items on display, many of the viewers weren't. Like seven year old Tamara Birrell who took a liking to this English banquet lamp, priced at $255.

Gertrude Summerfeldt Many friends

STOUFFVILLE — Long-time residents of this area will surely miss the presence of Mrs. Abner Summerfeldt at local events and activities. For Mrs. Summerfeldt's interests included not one community but two. She was an active member in the congregation of Ringwood Christian Church and took part in the Ladies Excelsior Class there. She also belonged to the Silver Jubilee Club in Stouffville.

Mrs. Summerfeldt, the former Gertrude Fisher, was born at Ringwood, daughter of John and Alice (Brown-berger) Fisher. In 1936, she married Abner Summerfeldt. He passed away in 1957.

As a girl in her teen years, she worked for the T. Eaton Company in Toronto. Apart from this, she lived most of the time at Ringwood, later moving to Stouffville in November, 1970.

Surviving is one son, John, of Stouffville and two grandchildren, Donna and Greg.

Mrs. Summerfeldt's death occurred, Sept. 3 in Scarborough Centenary Hospital, with the funeral service from the O'Neill Chapel, Stouffville, Sept. 5. Rev. Jim Byrne was in charge. Pall bearers were Clarence Fockler, David Fockler, Stewart Vague, Herb Hisey, Stewart Wideman and Herb Yakeley. Interment was at the Lutheran Cemetery, Unionville.

Injured

GOODWOOD — Ken May, a hockey stalwart with the Uxbridge "Black Hawks", was hospitalized on the weekend following an accident during a tournament in Lindsay. At first, it was thought Ken had suffered a broken hip but x-rays showed it to be a bad bruise. He was allowed to come home on Tuesday.

The parking lot at the Goodwood Hall has been paved.

A miscellaneous shower in honor of Doreen Mitchell, will be held Sept. 20 at 8 p.m., in the Goodwood Hall.

The next community bingo is Sept. 26 at 7:30 p.m., in the Goodwood Hall. The Ladies Orange Lodge begin their eueches, Sept. 19 at 8 p.m. in the hall.

A complete recovery is wished for Gerald Gray, a patient in Scarborough Centenary Hospital with a broken hip.

Mr. George Harman of Stouffville was honored by members of his family at a gathering in the Goodwood Hall, Saturday night. The occasion was his 79th birthday.

Close to 200 parents and children enjoyed a ball banquet, Friday, in the Goodwood Hall. Awards were presented by Stan Todd, Bryan Plewes, Don Jackson and John Paxton.

Mrs. Gorman of Capreol spent a week here with Mrs. Dawson and her mother.

The U.C.W. is planning a bazaar and bake sale, Oct. 20. Donations of items would be appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Farrier Mark 60th anniversary

STOUFFVILLE — On Tues., Sept. 4, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Farrier, Montreal Street, Stouffville, celebrated their Diamond Wedding Anniversary. The milestone was marked with a gathering at their home attended by members of their family and close friends.

Mrs. Farrier, the former Gladys Davis, was born at Glasgow in Uxbridge Twp., the daughter of Jesse and Elizabeth Davis. She attended the old Glasgow School and was a classmate of the late Arthur Latcham.

At age 17, she worked for the T. Eaton Company in Toronto. Her salary was ten dollars a week, out of which she paid three dollars a week for room and board.

Mr. Farrier is a native of Goodwood, the son of Gordon and Mary Farrier. His parents were closely acquainted with Gladys' mother and dad.

Herb and Gladys were married at a Methodist Church parsonage in Toronto, Sept. 4, 1919. They travelled by train to the Canadian National Exhibition.

Following retirement from farming in 1962, they moved to Stouffville. However, from 1964 to 1972, Mr. Farrier worked as a greenskeeper at Sleepy Hollow Golf and Country Club. He holds a 50-year membership in the Orange Lodge and both attend at the Stouffville Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrier are proud of their family that includes one daughter, Fern (Mrs. Ken Rusnell) of Queensville and one son, Grant, Main Street, Stouffville. There are six grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Mrs. Farrier has a brother, Walter Davis, living on Park Drive, Stouffville. Mr. Farrier has a sister, Mary (Mrs. Frank Wild) in Milton.

Herb and Gladys were the recipients of a treasured telegram from Queen Elizabeth and a beautiful plaque from Ontario Premier, Wm. Davis.
