Harvest Home Service

By JENNIE JOHNSON
GLEN MAJOR - The Pine Grove Ladies Auxiliary are holding their annual Harvest Home Service, Sunday, Sept. 30 at 3 p.m. The guest speaker will be Dr. M.B. Dymond of Port Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Schneider of Kitchener, visited her mother, Mrs. Fanny Pugh at Parkview Home and later enjoyed dinner with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. George Pickitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones of Newmarket visited with her brother, Mr. Edgar Fiss, Sunday.

Mrs. Linda Richards and daughters Sally and Wendy of Nestleton, spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. George Johnson.

Mrs. Edgar Johnson attended a dinner at Burns Church, Ashburn. The occasion was the 40th anniversary of the Ladies Bible Class.

Mrs. Charles Fiss attended a baby shower recently, for her great-granddaughter at the home of Mrs. Frank Semcsyszczym at Janetville, Sunday afternoon.

Jailed 45 days

MARKHAM - A 19 year old Markham youth was sentenced to 45 days in jail following his conviction on two counts of driving while disqualified and public mischief.

Timothy Willis received fifteen days on each to be served consecutively.

Willis was arrested May 4 in Markham and again, May 22 in Toronto, both on charges of driving while disqualified. The accused produced a driver's licence in the name of Mike Williams to avoid arrest and also purchased a motorcycle in that name. Crown Attorney Ted Minden told the court.

The court learned that the licence had been sent to Willis in error by the Ministry of Transport. Instead of returning it, he used it.

The Markham youth had previous convictions including one for accumulating unpaid fines.

"You have no respect for the law," commented Judge F.D. White in handing down the sentence, "and what's more, you're a lousy driver."

Chivalry is dead

MARKHAM - Chivalry is dying or maybe even dead observed Judge F.D. White after convicting a 20 year old Markham woman of driving while impaired. According to evidence, Denise Gauthier drove her boyfriend's truck over a curb, struck a parked car and hit a house before coming to a stop.

Property damage was estimated at $5,700 including $4,500 to the home.

The solicitor for the accused said the vehicle driven by his client was owned by her boyfriend's employer so she had to pay the costs involved.

"I guess the days of chivalry are gone," Judge White commented. He assessed a minimum fine of $50. "You have enough trouble already," he stated.

Assault

STOUFFVILLE - A Scarborough woman who elected to hitchhike rather than take a taxi, was the victim of a vicious assault near Stouffville, Sunday.

The unidentified female, police said, was offered a ride as she stood on Lawrence Avenue. Instead of taking her home, the motorist drove to a secluded area on the Pickering-Markham townline, punched and kicked his passenger and left her lying in a ditch.

The woman was able to make her way to a nearby house and call for help. She was released following treatment at York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill.
