

Parkview Home Bazaar fever

By HELEN BAATZ
Bazaar fever has struck and many sets of hands are now preparing for the big day. Be sure to mark Oct. 31, 2-4 p.m. on your calendar. Highlights this year will be quilts, hooked rugs, knitted and crocheted goods, used books a bake sale and tea room.

Recently a "Get Acquainted Hour" was held for the new residents; Mel Baker, Howard Hockley, Melba Steckley, Mildred Hyslop, Lambert Price Pugh and Evelina Forbes. A warm welcome was extended to them.

DISTANT GUESTS
Visitors from afar have been Mr. and Mrs. Gary Brethour and Mark from Prince George, B.C.; B. Shurgees from England; Daisy Frostad from Kincaird, Saskatchewan; Doreen Rempel from Hodgeville, Saskatchewan; and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Northcott from California.

Newlyweds depart in style following wedding in Bloomington Gospel Church

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hutchinson leave the Bloomington Christian Gospel Church in style following their wedding, Saturday afternoon. The bride is the former Shari Lewis, daughter of Donna Lewis and the late 'Bunt' Lewis of Stouffville. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hutchinson, Bloomington. The democrat, now a museum keepsake, was once owned by Richard Williams of Stouffville. It is said that he often brought his wife and family in it to the same Bloomington Church.

"Prince", the trusty steed, belongs to Ted Barry, R.R. 2, Stouffville. The chauffeur for the occasion was Eugene Paisley of Lincolnville.

The land is precious

By JEAN WHITE
The earth is the only permanent thing in the world. All other substance decomposes and returns to the soil, enriching it. This produces the elements of all life.

One piece of land, an acre square today, will be the same size a million years from now. But all else around it will have returned to dust.

Every living thing, man or animal, fish or fowl, owes its life to the land. Every convenience we enjoy comes from the soil; everything we drink, buildings crumble, seasons change, one generation follows another, the land remains.

Property ownership gives one a sense of security; a feeling of independence and contentment.

Of all our material things, land is the most valuable. With it, one need never go hungry. Factories may shut down; businesses may fold and payrolls may stop, but the man with land can always grow something to eat.

The soil is nature's greatest gift to man. It will support our children and our children's children if we care for it.

Home ownership gives one a feeling of permanency. No country rises above the standard set by the farmer. As he prospers, so does a nation.

A man who lives by the land, lives in peace.

Band concert

STOUFFVILLE — The Canadian Bible Society is sponsoring an evening of music with the famous Earls Court Band and Songsters Friday, Oct. 12 in the Stouffville Missionary Church at 8 p.m.

The brass band has long been an integral part of Salvation Army worship. The Earls Court band is one of the finest in Canada. Brian Ring has been Bandmaster at Earls Court since 1959. This appointment continued the traditions established by his father and grandfather, both of whom served as Salvation Army Bandmasters. Mr. Ring is a Professional Engineer and worked with Atomic Energy of Canada Ltd. He now serves as President of a Consulting Engineering Firm.

To mark the occasion of the Salvation Army's Centenary in 1965 the band was chosen to represent Canada at the celebrations in London, England. The three week European tour undertaken by the band at that time included a program in the Tuileries Gardens in Paris and an emotion-charged reception as the band marched Canada's new flag through the streets of Dieppe. They also played a command performance before Queen Elizabeth in the forecourt of Buckingham Palace. In 1967 the band was invited to play at Expo in Montreal.

The first Canadian Salvation Army band to appear on television, Earls Court has provided music for the Army's nation-wide radio program, "This is my Story", and the television series, "The Living Word". As recently as one month prior to this Western Tour, the band and songsters provided the music for "The Hallelujah Trail of '98", a historical narrative of the pioneering of the Salvation Army in the Yukon Territory during the Gold Rush of 1898. This two hour special was produced by CBC radio in Toronto and aired on the national network from coast to coast.

Precious years

MARKHAM — Kathy Pike of Peter Street, Markham, entered a piece of embroidery in the Fair, last week, and while it didn't win a red ribbon, it attracted much attention. Enscribed on it was the following verse:

Cleaning and scrubbing
Can wait til to-morrow
For babies grow up
We've learned to our sorrow
So quiet down, cobwebs
Dust; go to sleep
I'm rocking my baby
Cause babies don't keep
