Some potato!

STOUFFVILLE — A 3 pound, 13 1/2 ounce potato? And grown in Stouffville.

That's what the scales read as Brian Rose of O'Brien Avenue won The Tribune's top spot (by weight) competition at Markham Fair.

There were seventeen entries.

Second place went to Shauna Sedgewick of R.R. 1, Gormley. Her potatoes weighed in a 2 lb. 15 1/2 oz. The third heaviest was entered by Larry Simpson of Ballantrae at 2 lbs., 12 oz.

Senior tooter

MARKHAM — He's an 83 year old clown who plays the tuba. He was at Markham Fair Saturday and Sunday with the Brampton Clown Band.

Frank Cughvert came over from England in 1912. He's been in both world wars and has played in a Citizen's Band over 60 years.

The group was organized in 1933. There were 14 members. There are now only five, and they play at everything from fairs, to garden parties and weddings.

"We're very versatile," says Frank. "We even do Rock and Roll if someone wants us to."

Frank says the band never practices.

"We're all old pros, some still play in dance bands, he says.

Frank enjoys playing with the boys, but unfortunately he's so busy, he never gets a chance to see the sights when they perform at fairs.

"You'd think a person would have been long-winded to be able to play the tuba, but Frank says it's all in the way you're taught."

"Like a singer, you must be able to control the air through your diaphragm. It really isn't as hard as it looks."

Prize winners

GREENWOOD — Several Greenwood area exhibitors enjoyed excellent success at Markham Fair. Mrs. Don Pegg and Mrs. Alfred Pegg won prizes for weaving and baking while their mother, Mrs. Pearl Brooks received a 1st on her floral painting. Mrs. Vernon Hicks won three prizes on four quilts and another on a crocheted doly. Her granddaughter, Tammy Lee received a 1st on her white rabbit and Bob Hicks came in second in a sulky race.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Morden, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morden and Michael and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Morden and Ryan travelled to Nanticoke, Sunday, and visited with Mrs. Ethel Hallman.

We're pleased to report that Mary McLean is home again following a stay in Ajax-Pickering Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morden were in Banff for four days last month. Lloyd was attending an insurance adjusters convention there.

The kitchen band from the Silver Jubilee Club in Stouffville, entertained the Good Neighbors Club last month. On Monday, members travelled into the Lindsay district by bus to view the autumn colors.

On Thursday, Oct. 4 (to-night), James Kamstra of Oshawa, a member of the Durham Field Naturalists Society will present a slide presentation on Australia in the Rouge Hills Public Library at 8 p.m. The audience will be taken back-packing through the wilds of that country.
