Furnace failure

BY ELSIE BOLAND GOODWOOD — A furnace failure forced the closing of Goodwood United Church, Sunday and the holding of morning service at Siloam. Similarly, the U.C.W. bazaar and bake sale, Saturday, had to be switched to Goodwood Hall.

Kathleen May is home, following a visit with her aunt in Brandon Hills, Manitoba.

The house occupied by Doris May, has been sold. An auction is scheduled for this Saturday at 11 a.m. Doris plans to take up residence in Toronto.

The community welcomes Una Norton and Mrs. Dean Norton to the former Gribble house. Una will open up a beauty salon there.

The C-Bers are holding a dance, Saturday night in Goodwood Hall. Joyce Graham has tickets for the event.

Community euchre winners were Doris Devlin, Doreen Duck and Mary Anderson for the ladies; Gord McGuckin, Kae Boland and Ernie Luke for the men. Door prizes went to Evelyn Bryant, Renee Anchor and Iva Yake. The next euchre is Oct. 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Donald and Bob Fulford were away on a two-day mouse hunt. They bagged one.

The Baptist World Day of Prayer meeting will be held at the home of Marian Raulick, Nov. 6 at 1:30 p.m.

Beef dinner

BY MILDRED McTAGGART GREENWOOD — The annual beef dinner will be held Sunday at Greenwood United Church. Seatings are at 4:30, 5:30 and 6:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Middleton visited with Mr. and Mrs. Percy Middleton in Buffalo, Oct. 15.

Mrs. Wm. Brown, Janet Crawford, Mildred McTaggart, Marj Morden and Lorraine Nicholson attended the 70th anniversary celebration of the Claremont Women's Institute.

Mr. Frank Webb is improving after entering hospital last week.

The youth group met at the home of Lisa McTaggart, Saturday afternoon to make plans for a Hallowe'en Party.

New concrete steps with iron railings were completed in time for Sunday's anniversary services at Greenwood Church. The improvements add much to the appearance of the property. The Stewards are to be commended.

Tennis club

BY MARION SANDLE VICTORIA SQUARE — A tennis club may be organized in Victoria Square. Interested persons should contact Don Boynton at 887-5348. Membership will be limited. The deadline for notification is Nov. 15.

The congregation of Victoria Square United Church will celebrate its anniversary with a special service this Sunday at 11 a.m. Dr. Birch of Fairlawn United Church, Toronto, will bring the message with music by sisters, Joyce Miles and Fern Timbers.

Remember the annual turkey supper, Nov. 7 at the Community Centre. Admission is by ticket only.

Fined

YORK REGION — A 31 year old woman arrived at York Regional Police headquarters in Newmarket to enquire concerning a speeding ticket. An officer at the desk observed her condition and advised her not to drive home.

Unfortunately, for her, she didn't take his advice. She was seen staggering to her car and was later arrested when she attempted to leave.

Charged with driving with more than a legal limit of alcohol in her blood, Pamela Wheeler was fined $750.

Noting that it was her second similar conviction within a year, Judge F.D. White told her the offense could have resulted in a jail sentence.
