Hunters trapped in car

By Elsie Boland
GOODWOOD — Bryan Boland and Mike Feden had a narrow escape on the weekend while returning from a moose-hunting trip up North. A front tire on their car suddenly blew, sending the vehicle down a steep embankment. The auto rolled over several times and was completely demolished. The two men, trapped in the wreckage, were rescued by another carload of hunters who happened on the scene. They suffered only minor cuts and bruises.

Mary Mitchell hosted a trousseau tea, Sunday, for her daughter, Doreen Duggan, married recently in Goodwood United Church.

The L.O.B.A. held a social gathering, Thursday evening on the occasion of the organization's 35th anniversary.

The Goodwood Play Group's bazaar is this Saturday from 12 noon to 4 p.m., in the Community Hall.

Anniversary services will be held in the Goodwood United Church, Nov. 11 at 9:50 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Remember the turkey supper, Nov. 13 in the Goodwood Hall.

Dorothy Taylor will host the U.C.W. meeting, Nov. 7. Devotions will be taken by Dora Monisma; the program by Maude Bell.

Mr. Hilliard Davis was honored Sunday at a gathering in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Symes. The occasion was his 80th birthday. Mr. Davis, well-known in the Goodwood area, now resides at Fairview Lodge, Whitby.

Worship service this Sunday for the congregation of Goodwood United Church, will be held at the usual time and in the usual place. Temporary repairs will be made to the furnace until such time as sufficient funds are available to purchase a new one.

Unique wedding

By Mildred McTaggart
GREENWOOD — Pickering Town Councillor and Greenwood resident, Norah Geraghty was married on Saturday to William Stoner of Toronto. The ceremony was performed in the old church at the museum grounds. Greenwood pastor, Rev. A.M. Butler officiated.

An offering will be taken, Sunday, in the Greenwood United Church for the Vietnamese Refugee Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Pegg attended the diamond wedding anniversary gathering in honor of Dr. and Mrs. D.V. Hoskins of Newmarket, Saturday.
