Voice Projectors from Lectrosonics.

You're familiar with the problem: your audience is bigger than your voice. Or perhaps you and your audience are mobile, while your public address system is not. Or maybe your portable system turns your voice into something brittle, harsh and mechanical. How do you get clarity and audience coverage and portability at the same time?

Consider the Lectrosonics solution: the all-new Voice Projector 15 and its big brother, Voice Projector 16. Both Voice Projectors will project your natural voice with clarity and power over a wide area, yet are easily held in one hand or worn with a shoulder strap for all-day use.

Voice Projectors are an ideal "partner" to anyone who must walk and talk at the same time: auctioneers, tourguides, camp counselors, athletic coaches, band directors, recreation supervisors or announcers at "portable" events.

In addition, they give fire and police officers, life guards and other officials the chance to reach large crowds with a clear, calm undistorted voice: the voice of reason.

Put your voice with our Voice Projectors. You'll find it is an unbeatable combination...at a surprisingly affordable price.
