

"Girl Next Door"

Forest is home

By JIM THOMAS
VIVIAN — Anyone who knows the Vivian Forest, appreciates the quiet beauty of the site. Seventeen year old Cheryl Graham knows it and loves it. For she lives in it, or beside it.

On occasions, she goes for long walks down the scenic trails. Snowmobiling is also permitted in certain areas. She enjoys that too.

Cheryl's our "Girl Next Door".

A Grade 12 student at Stouffville High, she's continuing the business and commercial course that she hopes will graduate her into a legal secretary position next June. She's a whiz on the typewriter, able to tap out 55 words a minute.

Cheryl speaks highly of her commercial teacher, Mrs. Reynolds, mainly due to her ability to communicate on a one-to-one basis with the students. She also has high praise for Ballantrae Public School where she received her elementary education.

Family camping trips have provided many exciting holiday outings, Cheryl says, from the East Coast to the West. She's also been to Florida and some day hopes to visit Hawaii. Other interests include cross-country skiing, swimming, cycling, tennis and badminton. She also reads a lot.

Dancing's a favorite social pastime, with "Sparkles" at the "top of Toronto" (the C.N. Tower), the choice of city night spots. "The scenery's fantastic," she says.

Cheryl's baby-sitting services are in great demand. Parents consider her extremely responsible and like to have her come, even as far distant as Stouffville.

and Musselman's Lake. Cheryl has two brothers, Charlie and Garry, and an older sister, Connie. Since she and Connie are quite close in age (and size), they often exchange clothes. The practice works out well for both. Cheryl's an early-riser. She has to be. The school bus arrives around 8:10 a.m. and returns about 4:30 p.m. This is nothing new. She also attended Ballantrae School by bus. Cheryl admits a love for animals, in particular, a "mostly terrier called 'Sandy'." And Sandy loves Cheryl, especially when an outing together means a walk in the woods.

Slave Day at SDSS

By TIM HUMPHRIES
STOUFFVILLE — In past years, the Student Council at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School has introduced some rather bizarre ideas for raising money, but the latest is the most imaginative and provocative of all. On Thursday (to-day), a "slave auction" is planned, beginning at 2:40 and lasting through to 3:15. Volunteer slaves will be up for bids and with Mr. Mercer, our vice-principal on the 'block'; the stakes are extremely high. Slave Day is Friday, Nov. 23. Each 'servant' must abide by his master's wishes. The event will not only increase the treasury balance but add a little spark to our school spirit.

GRAPE FRUIT-ORANGES
Of course, the Council has other more mundane fund-raising projects such as the annual grapefruit and orange sale. Ambitious young salespeople have been out knocking on doors and taking orders. The fruit comes direct from Texas, sweet and juicy. Top sales personnel will receive excellent prizes. Also, the home room with the most sales will enjoy a free pizza-party. This is definitely a popular event.

PLAN VARIETY NIGHT
With Commencement over, staff and students are looking forward to other school presentations such as the Variety Night at the end of this month and something new, a Christmas Concert. The concert date is Dec. 11. Directors are music teacher, Mr. Samuelson, in charge of the Band and vocal instructor, Mr. Rehill, in charge of the choir. The program will include the S.D.S.S. choir, the choir from Orchard Park Public School, the Senior Band and the Junior Band. Circle the date on your calendar.

SEASON IS OVER
In basketball, the Sr. Girls lost to Huron Heights to end their season.

The Jr. Girls finished fourth and had to meet front-runners, Huron Heights in the playoffs. Stouffville dropped a close one, 40-39 in the final seconds of the game. Suzanne Correa scored a game-high fifteen points. Mary Der-varic collected twelve.

Weakened morals

YORK REGION — Markham and Whitchurch-Stouffville.

An ever increasing number of parents in the Region of York are showing concern for what they feel is a weakening of the moral structure within the country and the undermining of the family unit itself.

The chairperson is Whitchurch-Stouffville Town Councillor Becky Wedley. On Mon., Nov. 26, Rev. Ken Campbell, founder of Renaissance International, will meet with interested persons at 8 p.m. in the Aurora High School.

Citizens will discuss the curriculum at all levels; books and films; the drug situation and homosexuality.

Phony cheques

STOUFFVILLE — A 45 year old Whitchurch-Stouffville man convicted in Newmarket court on two counts of fraud, was given a suspended sentence and placed on 18 months probation when he appeared before Judge F.D. White. According to evidence, Peter Kenneth Harvey issued worthless cheques in the amounts of $147 at the Stouffville I.G.A. and $47 at Sleepy Hollow Golf and Country Club, also in Stouffville.

Solicitor for the accused said his client was under heavy financial and matrimonial pressures. Judge White ordered Harvey to make restitution equal to the sums of the two cheques.

Public mischief

STOUFFVILLE — A 23 year old Stouffville woman will be sentenced, Nov. 22, following conviction on a charge of public mischief.

used her sister's identification when stopped by police for a traffic violation. Judge F.D. White called the incident "one of the more serious offences to come before the courts." "Such occurrences undermine the administration of justice," he said. "You showed little consideration of others in an attempt to save your own hide," he concluded.

Song service

A service in song and testimony will be presented by The Wright Family Singers at the Stouffville Baptist Church, beginning at 6:45 p.m., Sunday.
