

The Most Rev. Edward Walter Scott, Archbishop and Primate of the Anglican Church of Canada, was presented with a copy of the Christ Church history by the People's Warden, John McMurray, at the conclusion of a Centennial Supper, Nov. 21.

Centennial Supper Archbishop was a guest

STOUFFVILLE — Rector's Warden and Master of Ceremonies. He urged his listeners to always maintain open minds to new ideas from any source. "Do this, and God will provide more than we desire or deserve," he concluded.

On behalf of Christ Church, John McMurray, the People's Warden, presented the Archbishop with a copy of the parish history entitled "The First Century 1879-1979".

The audience joined in the singing of the church's Centennial Hymn written by a member of the congregation, Grace Foote Powell. Mrs. Powell was present at the supper.

Rev. Scott urged the adoption of a new pattern of values with love and concern for other people uppermost on the priority scale. "Let's move away from tragedy and terror

Late Ira Burkholder Friendliness won friends

STOUFFVILLE — A smile is gone from the streets of Stouffville with the passing, Nov. 19, of Ira Burkholder, a long-time resident here. Mr. Burkholder died in Scarborough Centenary Hospital where he'd been a patient since suffering a stroke one month before.

Born near Greenwood, the son of Aaron and Agnes Burkholder, he was employed for many years as an engineer with Cooksville Brick and Tile. Because of his qualifications, he was hired as a custodian at Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. There, he gained a wide circle of friends in staff teachers and students alike. He had a good word for everyone and his sense of humor helped to brighten many a dreary day.

Mr. Burkholder was a member in the congregation at the Stouffville Baptist Church with strong Christian principles and beliefs. While in hospital, his pastor, Rev. Don Payne, called to see him many times and this proved a source of comfort to both Ira and Marjorie.

Late John Cairns
Service was held from the O'Neill Funeral Chapel, Tuesday, for John C. Cairns, R. R. 3, Stouffville, following his passing, Nov. 24 in York County Hospital, Newmarket. Surviving is one daughter, Bev (Mrs Adam Herold); one sister, Ella Cooper and one brother, Tom. In lieu of flowers, the family requested donations be sent to Vivian McCormack Memorial Church.

He was a member of the Silver Jubilee Club and always enjoyed the social activities there.

After residing on Market Street for many years, they moved to the Winlane Apartments where he gained even more friends. He loved children and always talked to them during chance meetings on the elevator or in the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkholder would have marked their 56th wedding anniversary, Nov. 28.

Besides his wife, the former Marjorie White, he is survived by one son, Douglas in Toronto; a daughter, Phyllis (Mrs. Frank Armstrong) of Vancouver; a sister Laura (Mrs. Walter Miller), Stouffville; ten grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. He was predeceased by two sons, Kenneth and Grant and one daughter, Grace Warburton.

Rev. Donald Payne conducted the funeral service, Nov. 21 with interment, Stouffville Cemetery.
