Parkview Home Bazaar nets over $1,800

By HELEN BAATZ

November has been a month of well deserved rest after the frantic flurry of October Bazaar activity. Our profits exceeded $1,800.00 which will be directed to our new Tea Room project to be started in the New Year. Two rooms in our Home will be converted into Tea Rooms which will give residents an opportunity to entertain a friend or simply prepare themselves a snack or a cup of tea at any time during the day. We see this as an added service to our Residents and a very positive step in helping an individual maintain their independence.

We welcome Mr. Earl Kendall as a regular Monday day guest.

On November 13 we visited Eaton's in the Scarborough Town Centre as they celebrated a Senior Citizens Day. Last week we drove to James White Florist to see their magnificent display of Marjo poinsettias.

On November 23, Mrs. Rose Crowder and Mrs. Laura Smith were ably represented Parkview Home at a mini seminar for Resident Councils recently at Castleview Wychwood Towers in Toronto.

Pastors who have led our Sunday Evening Services this month have been: Canon Puxley from Christ Church Anglican, Rev. Maurice Martin from Hagerman Mennonite Church, Rev. Jacob Small from Memorial Christian Church and Rev. Peck from Markham Missionary Church.

Thursday evening programs have included Mary Frances Drudge with slides of the Canadian North; Pioneer Girls of Stouffville Missionary Church; Silver Jubilee Club's Kitchen Band, and Paul Burkholder with slides of Nepal. We extend a sincere thank you to these and the many other volunteers from the community who come in regularly with a variety of groups, entertainment and talent.

Our birthday celebrates this past month were - Frances Rattée, Wesley Slack, Sarah Lunau, Rev. Alvin Winger, Zelia Patenaude, and Louise McCowan. The ladies of Altona Missionary Church provided the program and refreshments.

Visitors from afar have been: Keith and Hazel Goodman, Emo, Ontario; Agnes Myers, Fredericton, New Brunswick; Jack Myers, Montreal, Québec; Barbara DeSmedt, Winnipeg, Manitoba; and Don Sensenig, Akron, Pennsylvania.

Canadian Tire is assisting the Salvation Army in its Christmas goodwill, to help needy families, and to bring cheer to shut-ins in Uxbridge and its surrounding area.

The Uxbridge Salvation Army is responsible for an expansive territory including the communities of Markham, Stouffville, Port Perry, Goodwood and Mount Albert.

The managers of the Canadian Tire Stores in the centres of Uxbridge, Port Perry, Stouffville and Markham have placed boxes at the entrance of their stores encouraging customers to deposit their Canadian Tire coupons in them. The Canadian Tire will give the Salvation Army the cash value of the coupons in the boxes.

At this season, food hampers will provide the necessities for a Christmas dinner for needy families, and there will be toys for the children. Over 600 "Sunshine Bags" and War Crys will be distributed to those in Nursing Homes and hospitals in this wide-flung area.

On Christmas Sunday a Christmas

Community Fellowship Dinner will be provided in the Uxbridge Citadel for those who otherwise would be alone.

Money raised at Christmas also helps in the Welfare Work carried on by the Salvation Army throughout this area during the year. Captain Don Leach of the Uxbridge Salvation Army is very much encouraged by the generous response of Canadian Tire personnel, and as the public have responded well in the past to Salvation Army needs, the Captain is anticipating a successful venture.

A similar project was instituted in Canadian Tire Stores across the country in 1976, to raise money for the Canadian athletes at Montreal Olympics.
