Bantam B's win 3

STOUFFVILLE - Stouffville's OMHA Bantam B's have won three of their last four games to collect six out of eight possible points in league play.

In both their games against Sunderland the local boys proved themselves too strong and won decisive 7-0 and 8-0 victories.

Charlie Miniker, the Bantam's netminder, earned a well deserved shutout in the first game of the series. The scoring came from: Chris Braun, Peter Sinclair and Tim McNeil with two apiece whilst Rick Ewing added the single.

Game two was a similar story with Bantam captain Peter Sinclair causing chaos in the Sunderland ranks with four quickfire goals in succession, which left them floundering. It was left Tim McNeil, Craig Corner, Peter Bandula and Mike Williams to fire the singles that eventually sunk the opposition, without trace.

In their first game against Beaverton the local boys went into a quick three goal lead. Despite a rally by Stouffville, bringing the score to 3-1 Beaverton pressed on and held a 5-1 lead by the end of the second period.

Stouffville sprang a surprise in the final period with three quick goals of their own. Pressing for the tie, they found themselves with a couple of penalties that put them right out of the picture. The final score was 7-4 with Stouffville goals coming from: Chris Brown, Peter Sinclair, Peter Bandula and Murray Pattenden.

In their return match against Beaverton, last Tuesday, the Bantams played their best game of the season. The defence was superb, the forward line skated well and Charlie Munaker's performance in goal combined to down the visitors 3-2.

Team captain Peter Sinclair again headed the scoring with two excellent goals, backed by stalwart Chris Braun with a single.

Assists in the two game series came from Mike Grove, Rick Ewing, Tim McNeil, Peter Sinclair (2) and Murray Pattenden.

All members of the team are working tirelessly and they have developed a terrific team spirit which reflects in their play.

Fail to shine

STOUFFVILLE - In Sunday nights' Ladies hockey league Allstar tournament at the arena, the junior girls took on the visiting Brampton team and went down to a heavy 11-0 loss. The aggressive play of the visitors saw the Stouffville girls take one or two injuries, but the truth was they were too young and inexperienced to cope with such a team.

The A and M Record team did better in their game against Seneca College, notwithstanding a 3-1 defeat. One of the setbacks was the inclusion of the non-contact rule, making it tough for the Stouffville girls;

Seneca always play under this rule. Seneca's Bev Gordon picked up their first goal, on an assist from Cathy Kealey; Cathy used to play for Stouffville but changed sides when she went to college. With two minutes left Seneca collected their second goal by Cathy Stockman from Dianne Jackson.

There were no penalties in the first period, although both teams collected a couple in the second. Honors went to Kelly Rexgraham and Mary Allbright for Stouffville and Amy Ramsay and Bev Gordon for Seneca. Determined though they were to give Seneca a run for their money the Stouffville girls could manage only one goal in the third period; scored by Kathy McBeth from Cheryl Singleton. Ellen Crystal, on Bev Gordon's assist, gave Seneca their final goal at 9:06 in the third period. Considering this was the leagues first Allstar game this year, they did well against a team that has been playing together all season.

Diane Houston and Betty Ann Meredith shared goal tending duties for Stouffville and it was nice to welcome back another ex-Stouffville netminder, Lizette Lacoursier - now in net for Seneca.

A's dump Ajax

STOUFFVILLE - In their Monday night game against Ajax the Edward Murphy Bantam A's took a decisive 7-0 win to bring their record to seven wins, five ties and one loss. A reasonably good record for a team half way through its seasons schedule.

Brian Todd gave the Murphy boys their first period goal on a pass by Mark Murphy. The second period was just as notable for its lack of goals, with only one more from Don Waggoner on Luigi Tesoro's assist.

The third period was a different story. The A's went on a scoring spree which netted them five goals. Brian Todd netted two more, to give him a hat-trick. Glen Dobson picked up two in succession whilst Mike Anderson added a single. Barry Smith, Don Waggoner and Mike Anderson gave the assists. It was a very impressive blitz.

Al Fockler played well to give his team a shutout and was ably supported by a tight defence.

The Bantam A's next game is at 8 p.m. on Monday evening at Stouffville arena; this is their normal home game schedule. Their opponents' will be Port Perry.
