

Miniature Ford envied by kids in parade crowd

Nine year old Shawn Morrison and passenger, Jennifer Stover, also nine and both of South Street, were the envy of every child as they drove this unique replica of a Model 'T' Ford in Stouffville's Santa Claus Parade, Saturday. Shawn won the car in a draw at Markham Fair in 1978 and has learned to handle it well. She's received several offers for it, as much as $600, but so far has turned them all down.

Jehovah's Witness Church refused

STOUFFVILLE — An application that, if approved, would have permitted the construction of a Jehovah's Witness church, south of the Stouffville-Gormley Road and west of 7th Concession, has been rejected by Town Council.

opposed hadn't changed their minds. Councillor Jim Doble said it was Town policy not to "go slicing up ten-acre parcels for anyone else, so we shouldn't in this case."

Button and Bill Kamps offered support. Councillor Kamps described the site as "an ideal place for a church". "I think we should make an exception in this case."

The bylaw was drawn up after the request was supported by Planning Board several weeks earlier. However, it was evident that those

Ed Chorniak, spokesman for the church, explained that four acres was all that was needed and all the congregation could afford. Councillors June Opposed were Councillors Becky Wedley, Bill McNalley, Jim Sanders and Jim Doble. The applicant will file an appeal before the Ontario Municipal Board.

Grant of $2,800

Boost for art

STOUFFVILLE — The Art Committee within the Whitechurch-Stouffville Public Library Board, has received a $2,800 Christmas 'gift' from Council.

cache, will be used to improve the interior of the Latham Gallery, where art shows and other projects are held on a continuing basis. Mayor Eldred King, a member of the Library Board, said the $2,800 was considerably less than the amount originally requested. Councillor Jim Doble appeared somewhat irritated over the urgency of the appeal. "It seems like they always need the money to-morrow morning," he said. He also expressed the hope that the Art Committee was not a separate body from the regular Board.

Skater proves skill

STOUFFVILLE — Fourteen year old Karen Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith, Elm Road, Stouffville, brought honor to herself and her town, last weekend, when she placed second in the highly competitive Hamilton-Stoney Creek Invitational Figure Skating Competition.

Karen Ann, a Grade 9 student at Stouffville High, was one of more than 400 participants in the four-day event, the largest she'd ever attended. Her category was Juvenile 'A' with twelve entries in the class.

Santa arrived in style

Santa Claus arrived in Stouffville, Saturday afternoon, concluding one of the finest parades ever held in Town. Later, he called on residents in the various nursing homes, spreading Christmas cheer among senior citizens of the community. Jim Holt

Four hospitalized

MARKHAM — Two cars were demolished and four people were admitted to hospital, Tuesday night, when their vehicles collided at the intersection of 17th and

Warden Avenues in Markham. Injured were the two drivers, Deborah Simpson of Camden, Ont., and Douglas Hiltz of Keswick and two passengers,

David Forsyth, 22, of R.R. 1, Gormely and Wm. Williams, 55, of R.R. 2, Keswick. Police said the Simpson car, eastbound on 17th Avenue, failed to stop and was struck by the northbound Hiltz auto. The two vehicles ended up against a guard rail which prevented them from dropping 30 feet to a valley below.
