

"Girl Next Door"

Lori likes Stouffville

By JIM THOMAS
STOUFFVILLE — Don't criticize Stouffville to sixteen year old Lori Cuthbert. Although a resident here only four years, she's come to like the town and the people. In fact, what she enjoys about the community is the main reason her parents moved here in the first place. "It's quieter," she says, "not so much of a rush". "The people are nice too — they'll take time to talk".

Lori, her two brothers, Terry and Jeff and a beautiful Irish setter called "Red", reside on Stuart Street, coming here from Scarborough. The change in locations was not a traumatic experience. She had the fun of finding a new group of friends.

Lori's our "Girl Next Door".

Academically, everything's gone well at Stouffville High, with honor standing in Grades 9 and 10. But this achievement hasn't come about by chance. She studies hard, not only on week nights but weekends as well. She's a student in Grade 11.

English is her favorite subject and Mr. Engelbert, her favorite teacher. Although graduation is a few years away, skating, tennis and sewing. Following graduation, she hopes to train for a nurse. — Jim Thomas.

Sixteen year old Lori Cuthbert of Stuart Street, Stouffville, is a Grade 11 student at S.D.S.S. Interests include —

she's already considering a nursing career.

Favorite pastimes include — skating, tennis, and sewing. She makes many of her own clothes. For several months she was employed at the Beaver Gas Station, Main and Westlawn Crescent and would like very much to resume that work again. Lori remembers the family camping trips they all enjoyed while on vacation in Florida. She makes it sound like she'd like to do it again.

Terry Gray

Superintendent over 40 schools

YORK REGION — Terry Gray, Staff Supervisory Officer, has announced his resignation from The York County Board of Education, to be effective Feb. 29, 1980. As Staff Supervisory Officer for more than two years, Terry has been responsible for the evaluation of program and academic personnel in elementary and secondary schools across the county.

On March 1, Terry will assume the position of Superintendent of Instruction for the Sault Ste. Marie Board of Education which consists of about forty schools. His responsibilities will include the supervision of a family of schools, system-wide development of evaluation for program and academic personnel, and the co-ordination and restructuring of student evaluation. Terry also looks forward to his future responsibility for the professional development of principals, vice-principals as well as communication with and reporting to parents.

Terry Gray arrived in York County in 1966 from Huntsville High School and became principal of Sharon Public School. In 1968, he opened Whitchurch-Highlands Public School and in 1972 became principal of Meadowbrook Public School, at that time the largest elementary school in the county with 1000 students. In 1977, he became Staff Supervisory Officer.

Terry has always been known as an innovator and his participation in such matters as creative playgrounds, parent volunteers, open plan schools, and French programs has had a dynamic impact on education in York County.

His friends and colleagues at the Board Office, Area Offices, and schools are sorry that he is leaving but are very happy that he can pursue his interests and his career in education.

York Symphony

Orchestra is praised

By M.E. COULTER
YORK REGION — There were few empty seats at Marylake Shrine on December 7 and 8 for the York Symphony Orchestra's second concert of the season. The audience was enthusiastic in its appreciation of the delightful program which spanned a variety of musical styles and moods. Betty Kovac, manager of the International Symphony and president of the Ontario Federation of Symphony Orchestras, attended the Friday night performance.

By the strong voices of soloists Corinne Ayers and Scot Denton.

The audience anticipated John Tuttle's magnificent organ playing of Poulenc's organ concerto and applauded his entrance. The pipe organ at the Shrine is one of the world's best. Under Tuttle's masterful hands, it filled the shrine with splendid resounding tones. Poulenc's concerto, premiered in 1938, is a relatively modern piece full of diversity and excitement.

By contrast, the finale, Swan Lake, is famous for its fluid melodies. Its lyrical quality was strengthened by the addition of a harp to the orchestra.

As an encore, assistant conductor Jim Corbett led the orchestra in a medley of Christmas carols.
