Bantam A's

STOUFFVILLE — In their game against Cobourg on January 20, Stouffville's Bantam A's threw away their chance to tie the game in the third period, when they started to pick up penalties. Entering the third period, the Stouffville squad was trailing 4-3 but by the end of the game Cobourg had added four more to close it off 8-3.

Last Monday saw a reversal of play, when Stouffville hosted Port Hope at the arena. In the last period the home team added four goals for a final tally of 8-4.

For Stouffville, Brian Todd collected a pair with Barry Smith, Rick English, Donny Wagg, Tim Yeomans and Luigi Tesoro adding singles.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWN OF WHITCHURCH-STOUFFVILLE IN THE MATTER OF Hearings by the Ontario Municipal Board commencing February 11th, 1980

Re: Official Plan Amendment No. 14, Section 4.3a.3.1 and Schedule "A1", to the Official Plan of the former Township of Whitchurch and

Re: By-Law 79-40 amending By-Law 72-7 of The Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville.

Amendment No. 14 of the Official Plan of the former Township of Whitchurch and affecting the Ballastrae-Musselman's Lake area constitutes the Secondary Plan for that area.

The Honourable Minister of Housing has referred to the Ontario Municipal Board, Section 4.3a.3.1 of Amendment No. 14 which requires monitoring of the population of the Musselman's Lake area and stipulates that it shall not exceed 1,000 persons and in addition provides that if the cumulative effects of growth are recognized by contamination of the aquifer or of the lake prior to that population level being reached then no further development shall be permitted.

The land use designation shown on Schedule "A1" of Amendment No. 14 of lands on part of Plan 242 in Lot 18, Concession 8 and on part of Lot 18, Concession 8, fronting on the North Side of Connor Drive and vicinity is changed by Amendment No. 14 Schedule "A1" from Rural to Lakeside Residential and is also referred to by the Honourable Minister to the Ontario Municipal Board.

By-Law 79-40 will be before the Ontario Municipal Board at the same time as Section 4.3a.3.1 and Schedule "A1" of Amendment No. 14. This by-law changes the zoning of the said lands presently zoned Transitional to permit a subdivision of 19 residential lots with a minimum area of 2,787 square metres in the Residential Rural First Density category of By-Law 72-7.

Official Plan Amendment No. 14 aforesaid including the referred section and Schedule "A1" are compatible with By-Law 79-40 and vice versa.

The Official Plan, the Amendment No. 14 and By-Laws 79-40 and 72-7 may be examined at the Town Offices, 19 Civic Avenue, Stouffville.

DATED this 11th day of January, 1980
By Direction of the Ontario Municipal Board
Francis Hall, Clerk.
