Ski volunteers

STOUFFVILLE — With the year's ski season in full swing and spring only weeks away, the Canadian Ski Patrol system is already planning for next year. The sport of skiing is growing by leaps and bounds and they need volunteers to staff their many downhill and cross-country ski areas. They are, at present, in the midst of a recruiting drive.
If you are an avid Alpine or Nordic skier, have a good intermediate skiing ability and enjoy helping people in need, plus the fun and companionship of a great organization of men and women, then the Canadian Ski Patrol system needs your help.
Approach any ski patroller and ask for details, or ring 497-9200.

McNeil still lead

STOUFFVILLE — Gormley Greenhouses stopped the Kinsmen's winning streak with a convincing 6-2 win, in their game at the arena on Sunday. Andrea Tricker led the Gormley scoring with a pair, and singles came from Allison Lowery, Julie Goldring, Kristen Graham and Karen Cargill. Assists went to Julie Goldring with two, and Allison Lowery.
Kinsmen goals came from Cathy Carr and Leslie Roberts with the assists from Gail Jackson and Shelley Ferguson.
The Bunnies continued to hold down first place with a single point when they squeaked a 2-1 win over the Lions. Sheila McGrieve picked up a pair for the Bunnies, with the assist going to Michelle Coppins.
Brenda Peterson picked up the Lions only goal, with an assist from Shawn Morrison. The Lions outshot the Bunnies 15-9.
L and M Gardens' Bonnie Hollingsworth was unstoppable in their game against I.G.A. Bonnie scored six of L and M's 8 goals to I.G.A.'s 6. Julie Thompson added the other two with 4 assists of her own. Other assists came from Cheryl Brown 2, Sandra Hincks and Karen Brown.
Leading the scoring for I.G.A. was Jackie Armet with 3 followed closely by Gloria Mintz with 2. Joanne Beach added a single. Assists came from Jackie Armet 1, Gloria Mintz 2 and Joanne Beach 1. L and M outshot I.G.A. 21-12. Both netminders - Karen Brodie, and Maureen Kamps of L and M, played excellent games.
McNeil Labs are still number one in the senior division by just one point. They dumped Credit Union 5-1, and outshot them 15-7. Cheryl Singleton lead the scoring for McNeil, with 3 goals, whilst Heather Ross and Angela Jacobs added singles.
Assists went to Ann Holden, Cheryl Singleton (2), Kelly Rexgraham, Kathy Gibb and Kim Vance.
Kathy McBeth scored the Credit Union goal with assists to Teresa Ewing and Jolynn Ayette.
In a game that was purely defensive, Stacey Tractor and Kinsmen Seniors played to a 1-1 tie. Stacey just managed to outshoot the opposition 8-7, in a very tight game that saw Barb Lee open the scoring for the Kinsmen, with a blistering shot, on a pass from Pat Hamill.
With only 1.34 left in the game, Stacey had no choice but to pull their goalie for an extra forward; it paid off when Thora Moir tipped in a pass from Darlene Rexgraham.

I've decided!

I am voting Conservative because I remember it was Trudeau who over-borrowed and over-spent until every member of my family each owed $2,800 on the National Debt.
Why should my boys owe a debt of $5,600 which they had nothing to do with? I don't think Trudeau will be any different this time.
