

Girls Allstar

STOUFFVILLE — In Allstar Ladies Hockey on Sunday evening, the Stouffville Rustproofing Midgets went on a scoring spree, to outskate and outscore the visiting Schomberg girls 18-0.

Try as they may the visitors could not get on the board, although, they never gave up trying. It was apparent quite early in the game that they were hopelessly outclassed, by the polished play and confidence of the Stouffville girls.

Heather Ross and Jolynne Ayotte, led the scoring with 4 goals and one assist apiece, whilst Jannine Ferguson got the shutout.

Scoring in the game came from: Jackie Armet with 2, with 4 assists, Michelle Coppins 2 and 3 assists, Bonnie Hollingsworth with 2 goals, Autumn Goslin with 1 and 3 assists, Gloria Mintz with 1 and 3 assists, Julie Thompson with 1 goal, Cheryl Singleton with 1 and 2 assists. Assists also came from Teresa Ewing 2, Karen Brodie 2, Erin Shepherd 1.

In the Ladies Division, the Kinsmen upset Stacey Tractor Parts 4-0, to bring them within just four points of Stacey in the league standings.

Pat Hamel and Lillian Cordell did the scoring, with two goals each, assists came from Barb Lee and Debbie Cordell. Betty Ann Meredith picked up the shutout.

In the Senior Allstar game, Newmarket defeated Stouffville's A and M Records 2-1. All the scoring was done in the second half of the final frame.

Lillian Cordell — on loan to Newmarket — put the visitors ahead at 9:55, on a passing play from Cathy Danson and Lynn Bagely. A minute later Cindy Sutton made it 2-0 on a solo effort.

Late in the second period, Jolynne Ayotte scored for A and M, on Cheryl Singleton's assist.

The mood of the evening is reflected in the faces of committee members of the Stouffville Amateur Hockey League, on the presentation of a cheque for $1,000 to Tom Stephenson, at the league's benefit dance held on Saturday evening. Aid to family

BALLANTRAE — Stouffville's Mens Amateur Hockey League held a benefit dance at the Ballantrae Community Centre on Saturday evening.

Ed Stephenson, died of a latent injury, received several years ago when he was hit in the chest by a hockey puck. This precluded him being able to purchase life insurance. Consequently, his wife and two children received no benefits when he died.

The Amateur Hockey League decided that all profits from their activities this year will go towards helping Ed's family.

According to a club spokesman it is hoped that the club will be able to donate further funds to the Stephenson family before the end of the year.
