

Great performances

Gia Guddat earns praise

By JoAnn Thompson
MARKHAM — Gia Guddat, first place winner in the Open Ladies class during InterClub competitions this year, gave a flawless performance in the annual Ice Show at Markham. About 275 skaters were involved in the presentation of "Pinocchio."

The program began with a lively, well-choreographed performance by the Markettes, followed by Todd Guddat as Pinocchio; Kyla Mills - Jimmy Cricket; Geppetto Jimmy Vaughan; Cleo Debbie Graham; and Figaro - Julie Matus.

The audience, for, after all, a pro skater's career has to begin somewhere. The rest of the cast included: Shimmering Light, Puppets, Donkeys, Noisy Boys, Merry-makers, Candy Guards, Doves, Seaweed, Goldfish, Waves, and Starlight. J. Worthington Foulfellow, The Fox, was played by Kim Sulman, and Joanne Calderone was Gideon the Cat.

The second half was a tribute to music throughout the ages. The Junior Markettes led off, followed by guest skater, Gary Beacom, Toronto Cricket, Skating, and Curling Club.

Gary placed third in his class at the Canadians in Kitchener this year, and placed fifth at Lake Placid in 1979.

Now blow, says lovely senior skater Gayle Milroy of Cedar Grove as she holds a handkerchief to the elongated nose of eleven year old Todd Guddat, star in the Pinocchio feature at Markham's Ice Carnival last weekend. The show played to a full house every evening and Sunday afternoon. Jim Thomas Gayle Milroy delighted the audience with her solo "Wish Upon a Star." Good skating, a professional sound system, and colored lighting, combined to make this number one of the highlights of the evening.

The pre-schoolers skated, (or walked) out as toy soldiers and dolls. Nevertheless, they were given encouragement by

The show played to a full-house during each of the three performances.

At Ballantrae Newsboy robbed

BALLANTRAE — York Regional Police are seeking two youths in connection with an assault in which a young paper boy was robbed of his watch, his shopping cart and gloves.

Scott Agnew of Jasmine Crescent said he was making deliveries around 7 p.m., March 25 when the attack occurred. He was able to provide investigators with a good description of the lads, one around thirteen and the other, fifteen. Value of the items taken was placed at fifty dollars.

Windows broken

The window-breaking spree in Stouffville continues. On March 26, bricks were hurled through three plate glass doors at the Villa Italian Bakery on Edward Street, Stouffville. The loss is estimated at $600. The night before, a window was broken at the Stouffville Travel Centre, Main Street East, valued at $400.
