

University grads

From O.A.C.

David Barry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barry, R.R. 2, Stouffville, has received his Associate Diploma of Agriculture degree from the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph. David is a graduate of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School. Convocation was held June 3.

Wilfred Laurier

Kevin Morley, a graduate of Stouffville Dist. Secondary School, received his Bachelor of Science degree in Physics, May 25, from Sir. Wilfred Laurier University, Waterloo. Convocation was held in Kitchener Memorial Auditorium. Kevin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilf Morley, North Street, Stouffville.

Western Ontario

Katherine Hope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hope, R.R. 3, Stouffville, has graduated with a degree in Business Administration from the University of Western Ontario at London. For three years, she was the recipient of a scholarship presented by the Johnson Wax Company.

Open House

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. R.J. McElwain on the occasion of their 40th wedding anniversary, June 14. An "open house" will be held in their honor at the home of Carl and Josephine Boyd, 93 Helen Avenue, Unionville from 2 to 4 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. McElwain farmed on 17th Avenue, east of Hwy. 48 prior to taking up residence in the Dublin Apartment, Markham.

General Assembly

Around Town

Fun Run

Calling all runners and joggers. Here's an opportunity to enjoy some exercise and perhaps win a prize. On July 1 (Canada Day), the Stouffville Branch of the Canadian Progress Club is holding a "Fun Run" over a 6.2 mile course, beginning from the Sales Barn and concluding at the Park. Registrations are being accepted in advance. For forms and additional information call 640-3976; 294-1575 or 297-3727.

Celebration

On Sat., June 21, a fifteenth anniversary celebration will be held at Stouffville's Parkview Home. An "open house" is planned from 2 to 4 p.m., with an official ceremony at three. The Town Band will provide the special music and refreshments will be served.

Sock Hop

The Sock Hop will be held at Summitview School this Friday, but will resume June 20 at 7 p.m. Young people, 11 to 15 years are invited. The admission is $1.50.

Purchase a reaper

The Markham Historical Society has added a reaper to its collection of implements at their Museum. It was purchased at the Hamill farm auction for $500. The following persons covered the cost: Myrtle Hamill, Sim Reesor, Amos and Mrs. Reesor, Archie Little, John Lunau, Norm Reid, Levi Diller and Carman Lewis.

Six Year Lease

Vern and Audrey Davies have obtained a six year lease at Woodland Park, Cedar Grove and will continue to operate a trailer camp at this location. The site is only 1 1/2 miles from the Metro Zoo, making it popular with school groups and visitors from the United States.

Centennial tickets

If you happen to be a Carroll Baker fan, you'll want to attend her concert, June 19 in the Newmarket Arena. The event is all part of that Town's centennial year program. For tickets, contact the Stouffville-Office of Family Trust, 18 Main Street East. The phone number is 640-2082.

Children's Films

On Sat., June 14 and again on Sat., June 21 children's films will be shown at the Town Library, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Horticultural Society

Tommy Thompson, manager of the Metro Zoo, will be the guest speaker at a meeting of the Stouffville Horticultural Society, Mon., June 16 at 8 p.m. in the United Church. A floral exhibit will also be part of the program.

Suprise Party

Bill and Elva Corcoran, R.R. 2, Stouffville, were honored at a surprise party, Saturday evening in the Masonic Hall. The occasion was their 30th wedding anniversary. Close to 125 attended including a bus load of friends and relatives from Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. Corcoran have eight children including five daughters - Mildred (Mrs. Alfred Barrett), Stouffville; Carol (Mrs. Darrel Lindsay), Stouffville; Irene (Mrs. Mark Radford), Balmertown; Joan and Bernadette at home; three sons, Joey, Andrew and Gordon and three grandchildren. Music for the gathering was provided by Alfred, their son-in-law and his 4-piece band.

New firemen

Town Fire Chief Walter Smith has acquired the services of two new volunteers. Scott Watson, Main Street and Allan Sisco, Russell Avenue, succeed Don Doner and Marvin Betz, formerly with the Department.

Married 50 years

Fred and Lillian Byer, Maytree Avenue, Stouffville, will celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary on Sat., June 21. They will receive their friends at an "open house" from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m., at the Silver Jubilee Club, Main and Market Streets.

Block Parents

Stouffville's Block Parent Association will hold a general meeting, Wed., June 18 at Summitview Public School. Time of the gathering is 7:30 p.m. Members are requested to return old or damaged window signs in exchange for new ones.

Five Awards

Ruth-Anne Wideman, daughter of Ray and Lois Wideman, R.R. 1, Unionville, has successfully completed her Grade 13 year at Niagara Christian College, Ft. Erie. At the annual graduation exercises, Ruth-Anne was the recipient of no less than five awards, including "Athlete of the Year" for a second time. She was also selected the Salutatorian for the graduation class. In the fall, she'll attend at the University of Western Ontario in London.

Camp Director

Russell Stover, known to many in Stouffville, is a director this summer at Camp Mishewah. Next month he will be joined by his brother and sister-in-law, Bob and Nancy Stover and family, Loretta Crescent South.

Band Practice

The Town Band is now practicing regularly every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m., in the Stouffville Arena. New members are welcome.

Home from England

Marion Murphy, Main Street East and Joan Marshman, Maytree Avenue, Toronto, one daughter, recently enjoyed a pleasant holiday in Anne (Mrs Paul Breaux) of England. They returned home Sunday.

Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brownsberger of Ringwood, recently travelled to Idaho where they attended the wedding of their granddaughter, Carol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Brownsberger.

Our editor

The Tribune's editor fully expected Summitview School librarian, Kay Dowswell to come into the Office, Thursday, wielding a ruler after he mistakenly referred to her as Kay Williamson (her maiden name), in a Page 1 picture last week. Unlike Ms. MacTeer, wife of former Prime Minister Joe Clark, Kay prefers Mrs. Dowswell to Ms. Williamson, and so do we. The kids at Summitview can rest assured there's been no staff change without their knowledge.

College Graduate

Congratulations to Becky Fretz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Fretz, Main Street East, a graduate from Niagara Christian College, Ft. Erie. Becky completed Grades 11, 12 and 13 in two years. The graduation ceremony was Friday night. Becky has applied to do two years volunteer service through the Brethern-in-Christ Church. She's a member at Oak Ridges.

Festival cancelled

The strawberry festival, scheduled for the Whitechurch - Stouffville Museum at Vandorf, June 28, has been cancelled owing to a similar event planned by Wesley United Church, the evening before. The decision is also due to the fact museum curator, Mary Hopkins of Stouffville was quite seriously injured in a recent car accident. She's a patient in Scarborough Centenary Hospital and will be moved to St. John's Convalescent Hospital as soon as accommodation is available there.

Dean's Honor List

Mrs. Noel Ramsey (Shirley Aiken), has been placed on the Dean's Honor List following completion of her second year of a 4-year Hotel-Restaurant and Institutional Administration Course at Ryerson Polytechnical Institute, Toronto. At present, Shirley is employed in the night auditing department at the Westbury Hotel.

Decoration Day

The annual decoration day service at Friend's Cemetery, Pine Orchard, will be held on Sunday, June 29 at 2 p.m.

Auction-bake sale

A fund-raising auction and bake sale will be held this Saturday in the Stouffville Arena beginning at 12:30 p.m. Proceeds from the event will help subsidize the cost of sending the Town's Midget Hockey Team to Sweden in December.

Bible School

A vacation bible school will be held June 23 to 27 from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon in the Claremont United Church. Children from three to fourteen years are welcome. Registrations will be accepted, June 23 at 9 a.m.

Gala reception

Dr. and Mrs. Edgar White were accorded a heart-warming reception on arrival at their summer cottage on Appleton Drive, Musselman's Lake, Saturday. They rode in style aboard a 1924 Ford, led by a piper, two people on horseback and a flotilla of children waving Canadian flags. The occasion was a celebration in honor of their Golden Wedding Anniversary. Edgar and Margaret reside at 42 Castle Knock Road in Toronto but the White family has retained their lake cottage since its construction back in 1918. Dr. White is highly respected in the dental profession and still practices three days a week. In July, he'll be named to the position of Master of the International College of Dentists. The highly respected couple have many children, one son, Michael in Toronto; one daughter, Anne (Mrs Paul Breaux) of Agincourt and three grandchildren.
