Induct new pastor at Christ Church Anglican, Stouffville

A new chapter was written into the history of the congregation at Christ Church Anglican in Stouffville, Sunday evening, with the induction of Rev. Philip Poole (left) into the ministry here. The congregation, attending the service, was so large, it overflowed the auditorium and filled the stairs below. The Stouffville-Unionville charge is now divided, allowing Rev. Frank Edney (right) more time to work within the congregation of St. Philip's, Unionville.

Willow Springs Camp Summer paradise

LEMONVILLE — Hundreds of local (and not so local) young people will share a spiritual and recreational experience, this summer, through involvement in an organized youth program at Willow Springs Camp, Bethesda Sideroad, near Lemonville.

Willow Springs, operated by Dick and Shirley Ohlman, will host more than 400 boys and girls ranging in age from six to fifteen. They will be divided into primary, junior and senior age groups, staying at the site during specified times. The majority will live in a dormitory at the camp's barn complex or in cabins. A few will attend only during the day.

While the youth program doesn't begin until the seniors arrive, June 29, the property's already open to the public for church related activities. The camp comes under the sponsorship of the Canadian Sunday School Mission.

Activities include boating, swimming, archery, volleyball, basketball, handcrafts, and fun-filled campfires. There's a gymnasium in the barn's upper floor, a tack shop and a beautiful spring-fed pond. An important part of the program is the chapel, held twice each day. This, says Mr. Ohlman, combined with athletics, "enables us to send the young people home stronger in spirit, body and soul."

In a co-operative venture with the Missionary Church in Stouffville, about one hundred young people will participate in a day-camp from Aug. 11 to 15. During the last two weeks in July, Willow Springs will host a group of inter-city children in conjunction with the Toronto Fresh Air Fund.

The camp has a staff of thirty, many from the Stouffville area. Mr. Ohlman is the general manager, and his wife Shirley, his assistant. Shirley Goertzer is the camp director. Arthur Durkee is her assistant.

The ratio is one counsellor for every eight campers. These positions will be filled by - Anne Dueck, Anita Buhr, Rosemary Snider, Debbie Witherow, Zina Gurdz, Paul Myers, Clarence Brooks and Dan Scheffield.

Parkview Home

Beauty spot

By HELEN BAATZ
 Amateur gardeners are out in profusion these days around Parkview as are a variety of flowers! We hope you caught a glimpse of our wonderful crabtrees in bloom, they really are a sight to behold each May.

Pastors who visited our Home are Rev. David Barker, Rev. Howard Minaker of Bethel Assemblies of God, Rev. Jim Shantz of Baker Hill Baptist and Rev. John Hamilton of Stouffville Missionary Church. Their loyalty and devotion to the Home are appreciated.

Our Ladies Auxiliary, led by Betty Campey, held a Spring Tea for Residents and friends recently. The donations received will be channelled into our Tea Room project. The many works of art exhibited at the Tea were painted over the past year by residents, apartment tenants and staff members and were a very pleasant backdrop to the event.
