

Athletes

Under fire!

STOUFFVILLE — In his after dinner speech at the Stouffville high school awards night last Thursday evening, teacher Jim Rehill painted a rather bleak outlook for inter-school sports.

He said, "With teacher enrollment decreasing, it is becoming more and more difficult to find coaches for the increasing number of sports being made available to students. Although, we at S.D.S.S. are rather fortunate compared to some in this respect".

Athletes themselves did not escape from his fire, "In all my years in sport I have never seen so many disqualified athletes caught cheating. In basketball, the number of players thrown off court is at an all time high. The athletes will have to reconsider their attitude towards their own particular sport if they wish to continue in it", he concluded.

In addition to the awarding of team bars and awards there were a large number of individual awards.

This year's top athletes are Peggy McBride and Dave Dart. Both have been actively engaged in many branches of sport this year, and were obviously a popular choice as far as the students were concerned.

Individual awards were as follows: Cross country team, outstanding girl: Mary Griffiths.

Soccer: outstanding player, Ian Sinclair.

Volleyball: outstanding girl Ruth Eby.

Outstanding boy: Chris Kamps.

Outstanding golfer: Dave Raymer.

Basketball: outstanding girl, Peggy McBride. Outstanding boy: Dave Hewitt.

Wrestling: Outstanding wrestler, Maryk Kaczynski.

Badminton: Outstanding girl, Peggy McBride. Outstanding boy, Dave Dart.

Ski team: Outstanding racer, Tom Morgan.

Track and Field: Outstanding girl (Field), Dawn Baggs. Outstanding boy (Field), Dave Dart. Outstanding girl (Track), Tammy Veitch. Outstanding boy (Track), Jeroen Verhoog.

Outstanding rugby player: David Rea.

SPORTS

Called off

STOUFFVILLE — It was a case of no ball, no players and eventually no game when Stouffville's Junior men's team met Whitley in their home game on June 4.

Umpire Neil LaFleur, literally stopped the game - unintentionally - when he called for illegal pitching by both Whitley pitchers - the Whitley captain decided to call it a night and pulled his team off the field.

Despite the intervention of Cliff Dunkeld, who tried to pour oil onto troubled waters, the damage was done. One by one the Whitley team drifted off their cars, taking their bats and balls with them.

Will they return? Yes, but only on the condition, that in future all umpiring is done by officials drawn outside the area. It seems the proviso has already been agreed to.

Fun league

STOUFFVILLE — Scores in the Women's fun softball league on June 3 are as follows: Lee Sand & Gravel 30 vs Montgomery Construction 14. (Lee Sand home runs came from Minnie Bell and Marshall Clapp).

Jim Holt.

Midget tourney

STOUFFVILLE — The schedule is as follows: Friday June 13 - 7:00 p.m. - Pickering vs Cedar Hill. 8:30 p.m. - Oshawa vs Richmond Hill. Saturday June 14 - 9:00 a.m. - Sarnia vs Scarborough. London vs Waterloo.

Stouffville's midget girls team - who picked up third place bronze medals in last year's tournament - will, unfortunately, not be playing this weekend.

Bantam girls

STOUFFVILLE — Despite a slow start in their game against Richmond Hill, Stouffville's girls - Bantam Allstar softball team managed a 5-5 tie, in a game that highlighted the pitching of Liz Crittenden - 8 strike-outs and 2 walks. Trailing 4-2 into the final innings, Debbie Heard, Paige Cowan and Karen Nugent hit singles whilst Liz Crittenden drove in the tying run.

Top girl athlete at S.D.S.S. this year is Peggy McBride. Peggy also took the individual trophies in basketball and badminton. Jim Holt.
