

No loss record

STOUFFVILLE — At the halfway mark of regular season play, Stouffville's intermediate ladies softball team, the Merchants, have the enviable record of seven straight wins and no losses; they are currently tied with Bradford for first place in the league standings.

Their game against Port Perry on June 10 was characterized by big hitting, a team batting average of .571, and a 22-8 win for the Stouffville team.

In their game against Sunderland the following evening it was no contest. Stouffville romped home with yet another impressive win - this time 21-1; Sunderland were lucky to avert a shutout.

It was great hitting by the Merchants who managed 21 hits with 39 at bat and a team average of .538. Ruth Jackson and Sue Gillies slammed consecutive home runs, while Liz Lacoursier and Tanis Manahan each connected for a triple.

The Stouffville ladies were very aggressive and quick off the bases for a total of nine steals.

On Wednesday June 25, the Merchants meet Bradford, at Stouffville. Game starts at 8:30 p.m. at the main diamond. This promises to be the game of the year in the ladies league as both teams are tied for first place.

Lose 11-6

STOUFFVILLE — Despite a badly bruised finger, pitcher Liz Crittenden managed 12 strike-outs when Stouffville's girls Bantam team met Coburg last Thursday evening. Unfortunately, her fine effort was not enough to save the Stouffville team from a 11-6 loss.

Coburg trailed 3-1 until the fifth and then went ahead with three runs in the sixth and three in the seventh.

Newly acquired short-stop Sheila Fockler hit 4 at 4 and stole 3 bases, while Jackie Chong, Karen Nugent and Lisa Mellon gained walks and were able to score.

Trojans 6 Nomads 0

Win despite injuries

VICTORIA SQUARE — Having suffered defeat in their first two league games of the season, Stouffville's rugby team, the Trojans, showed a determined spirit in downing the Nomads 6-0 on Saturday afternoon at Fletcher's Field.

Injuries have depleted the Trojans ranks over the last few games, and their scrum was lightweight compared to the Nomads. However, the resultant mixture of players was more than effective. Tom Miller, returning after a three week lay-off, played well alongside Tom Lehman in the front row. Dave Richardson and Joe Palmer were very strong playing lock, while wing forwards Terry Alexis and Glen Newmarch turned in excellent performances. Mike Salb played his usual faultless game.

The Trojans refusal to be intimidated by some dubious Nomad play gave them the chance to capitalize on the penalty kicks; Alexis kicked two out of three for the final 6-0 tally.

Unfortunately, the Trojan wing-line never really got going as Monopoli, Johnson and Arrigo were very closely marked by their opposite numbers. It might have been a different story if the ball had got past Davidson; it rarely did.

Outstanding runs were made by Arrigo and Jim Ryan to take the ball deep inside the Nomad end where for most of the game the Trojans kept it.

In the second half, Gary Mathews got his chance to play in his first league game; substituting for an injured Richardson. He acquitted himself well.

Joe Bell took a lot of punishment but insisted on playing through to the final whistle. His striking was the best yet and ensured the Trojans of the ball 75 per cent of the game.

Dave Middleton played a steady game throughout, despite a number of rushes; the Nomads seldom made ground on the weak side.

Team Captain, Glen Gibson played a vastly improved game at scrum-half. His reason for such marked improvement was "I think I know what I'm doing now." His summation could well apply to the whole team. They played a great game.

Impressive win

STOUFFVILLE — In their game against Willowdale, last week, the Kinsmen midget girl's softball team won by an impressive margin of eight runs, for a final winning tally of 18-10.

Leading 8-0 after the second innings, the Stouffville girls added seven more in the third before Willowdale got under way with four runs. Keeping up the momentum, Willowdale cut Stouffville's lead still further, with four in the fourth, and a homer apiece by Moira Laidlaw and Colleen O'Doherty in the fifth.

Stouffville rounded out the score with 2 more runs in the final innings.

Runs for Stouffville came from Wendy Turner and Darlene Wagg with 3 apiece. Donna Rickman, Teresa Ewing, Jackie Armet, Jannette Cooper, Jolynn Aytote and Ester Herbert adding 2 each.

AHL VS CHUM

STOUFFVILLE — The Amateur Hockey League will again be hosting the CHUM radio slowpitch team. This time for the Canada Day celebrations in Stouffville.

Last year's visit by the well known CHUM team was such a success it was decided to invite them back.

The game will be held at the main diamond on Saturday, June 28, from 2 to 4 p.m.

This year the A.H.L. will be running a beer garden in the arena from 12 to 6 p.m. All proceeds will go towards the proposed minor hockey trip to Sweden, later this year.

Ted Sommerville of Sommerville's Sports Centre has kindly donated this year's trophy.

Out of tourney

STOUFFVILLE — In tournament play at Wasaga Beach last weekend, the McEwan-Lee men's slowpitch team failed to get into the playoffs.

Their first game gave them a win over Collingwood's Kaufman team, which saw some good hitting by Jackson, Gaston and Pennanen, and good outfielding by Pete Turner for a 6-4 win.

Disappointment came in the second game which saw no less than 20 batters stranded in seven innings for a 4-2 loss to Kincairdine.

Injuries, and an error by coach Wayne Emerson, saw the local squad go down 9-6 to a strong Collingwood side in their third game. Gord Ness pulled a muscle, Pete Turner received a heel burn, while Gaston and Black suffered arm injuries.

With the first tournament of the season under their belt the team is confidently looking forward to their next one, to be held at Markham on June 20 to 21. First game is at 8:30 p.m. at Morgan Park, Markham tomorrow evening.

Ball hockey

STOUFFVILLE — The fourth Gladwish Invitational Ball Hockey tournament is being held at Lambeth, London, Ontario, on July 5 and 6. Sixteen teams will take part, coming from as far afield as Windsor and Kingston.

This year, for the first time, Stouffville is sending a squad of young hopefuls, under the coaching guidance of Eric Scaife, ex-president of the London Ball Hockey League.

Close win

STOUFFVILLE — Card's Hardware girl's mosquito team fought a hard battle on Thursday night in their game against Thornhill; the Stouffville girls came away with a close 1-0 win.

In the forward line, Dorothy Ireton and Shannon Cooney played well while Monique Gilbert and Karen Cargill made some good plays in defense. Sonya Klein earned a well deserved shutout.
