Owen Halsted Beloved pastor

STOUFFVILLE — Rev. Owen Halsted, a loving father and beloved pastor, died June 11 in York County Hospital, Newmarket in his 84th year.

Born in Sheffield, England, son of Francis and Clara Halsted, he practiced a kindly service to his fellow man outside as well as inside the church. He received great personal satisfaction in visiting senior citizens' homes where he could talk to and comfort the elderly in times of loneliness and ill health.

An avid writer, he loved old books. He also enjoyed the great outdoors, flowers in particular. For a time, he served as a representative for Trinity Hall College and Seminary.

Besides his wife, the former Nellie McGuirk, he is survived by three sons, Owen, Kenneth and Maurice; one daughter, Clara (Mrs. Ed Stevenson); three brothers, William, Randolph, and Fred; one step-brother, William Hollingsworth; 17 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Service was held Friday from the O'Neill Funeral Chapel, with interment, Stouffville Cemetery. Pall-bearers were four grandsons, Daniel Harmon, Kenneth Harmon, Maurice Halsted and Martin McGricken; a grandson-in-law, Michael Barry and long-time friend, John Norman.
