

Christian Church Conference at Waterloo

STOUFFVILLE — "Prayer and Revival" was the theme of the 32nd annual meeting of the Conservative Congregational Christian Conference held recently on the campus of Waterloo University.

Attending from the Memorial Christian Church in Stouffville were - Rev. and Mrs. Jacob Small, Stephen and Shelly; George and Udelle Wood, Karen, David, Kathryn, Kristine, John and Kerri-Lynn; Mrs. Harriett Bass, Greg Clapp, Marsha Clapp, Derek Schoppe, Martin Legemaate, Rev. Wm. Pape, Ken and Evelyn Wagg, and Susanne McEwen.

The conference featured a full program for adults, young people and children. Literature and displays depicting different ministries in the Christian Church were available. Of special interest was a booklet entitled "A History of the Christian Church in Ontario", outlining the development of the Christian Churches in this province as far back as 155 years ago.

The Fellowship of Christian Churches stands for authority of the scriptures; unity of all believers and outreach in other countries.

The morning speaker was Rev. Barry Jones, formerly of Ringwood Congregational Christian Church. The message in the evening was brought by Rev. Dr. Charles Seidenspinner of Calvary Church, St. Catharines.

Several attending the Ontario Conference are planning to attend next year's meeting Aug. 11 to 13, 1981 at the University of Wisconsin in the city of Superior.

Memorial

On Tuesday, July 22, Carl David Boyd, Helen Avenue, Unionville and formerly of R.R. 1, Stouffville, died suddenly following a heart attack. The loss is felt keenly by his wife and family. The following "Epitaph to Dad" is composed and signed by "His Children". It reads:

What a great man there was who graced the world for a season. A man of integrity, noble in spirit and act.

He embodied the ethic of work and ennobled the word with his strength of commitment and directed energy. No job undertaken was left undone. His enthusiasm was unquenched by temporary upset or frustration. Of honorable endeavor in all business dealings, he taught us to do likewise.

As a farmer, he listened to nature's voice in all seasons and in so doing, acquired knowledge of life's elements. He drew upon this knowledge and experience in discussions with both university professor and child, providing insight for their lives.

He was a generous and warm-hearted man whose greatest delight was in giving. A man of balanced nature, harmonious and sociable, he knew it not wrong to hold friends and family dear and acted always in accordance with this knowledge.

With humor and wit, he benefitted friends and children of friends. They can well bespeak of the tricks he played, the jokes he told and the laughter that blessed their daily lives.

He acknowledged self-esteem and encouraged it for all men, but prevented pride from ruling his heart. He reared two sons and two daughters, all of whom continue to respect authority and discipline. With high regard for the precepts learned from cradle to shoulder-height conversation, they honor the values he encouraged.

Always humble in the ever presence of God, he taught humility. In the midst of hardship, his faith remained steadfast and by his example we are encouraged.

To say we miss him is not enough for he was the tiller of our soil, the leader of the harvest and the breaker of our bread.

So it is that heaven sings and earth weeps as one gains what the other has lost.

Lovingly remembered,
His Children
