

Merry Margaret May, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman May, was married to Douglas Edward Jones, the son of Mr. George Jones and the late Reta Jones of Goodwood, recently, in the home of the bride's parents.

Douglas and Merry Jones

Couple wed

Merry Margaret May and Douglas Edward Jones exchanged marriage vows, in the home of the bride's parents in Stouffville, on June 7, 1980 at 11 a.m. with David Adams of Gospel Hall, Unionville officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Norman May, wore a floor-length, lace-trimmed, white gown, with wine rosebuds, nestled at intervals in the bottom of the train.

She carried a lace fan with a cluster of matching wine roses and babies breath.

Lynda Blundell was matron of honor and Laurie-Anne Wilson, Merry's maid.

Gary Jones from Milverton was best man for his brother, Steve Jones acted as usher.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman May, and the groom is the son of Mr. George Jones and the late Reta Jones of Goodwood.

For their wedding journey, the bride chose a deep rose dress with beige accessories and corsage of pastel pink and white sweetheart rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. May are pleased to take this occasion to welcome another son into the family.

Visit Texas

By EVELYN MILSTED GORMLEY — Mrs. Ray Atkinson and son, Kevin, and Mrs. David Paisley and son, Scott, left last week for an eight-day visit to Texas. Kevin and Scott are members of the Stouffville IGA major atom soccer team, which will be competing in the international tournament near Dallas.

The ladies of the community are busy preparing for the annual Mennonite Central Committee relief sale, to be held at Pioneer Village, Sept. 13. The Heise Hill ladies have made a large number of quilts for the quilt auction, which starts at 12:30 p.m. Any donations of baking, jams, pickles, crafts, etc., will be appreciated. Please contact Mrs. Jim Cober, 887-5489, or Mrs. Jack Wright, 887-5234.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Doner spent three weeks with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Welch, at Quill Lake, Sask.

Mrs. Russell Heise entertained a group of ladies at a quilting last week.

The daily vacation bible school at Missionary Church averaged 45 children a night. Although attendance was down this year, interest was high.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doner held their annual hayride and weiner roast Friday night for their employees and families.

The Memorial Christian Church Young People hosted the young people of the First Congregational Church, Java Village, recently.
