

FAIR EXHIBITS SET A RECORD

It was Markham Fair's 125th anniversary and officials were dressed appropriately for the occasion on opening day. Shown (left to right) are: Immediate Past President Mac Cosburn and Mrs. Cosburn; President Fred Crawford and Mrs. Crawford; Provincial Minister of Agriculture Lorne Henderson; Gerri Seeley and 1st Vice-President Dennis Seeley; 2nd Vice-President Bill Walker.

Meet 5 month old Cheryl Cunliffe, the Reserve Grand Champion baby at Markham Fair with her mother, Lorraine Cunliffe (right), 25 Carolwood Crescent, Markham.

Ten year old Jack Keeping of Dickson's Hill won a prize for his chocolate cake in the boy's division of the Eighteen and Under Class.

Depicting Friday's inclement weather, Fair queen Sue Field shields Heather Williams' first prize jack-o-lantern from the rain.

Steven Lewis, R.R. 1, Unionville, accepts a second prize ribbon from his cousin, Fair princess Linda Lewis, in one of several Clydesdale classes.

Roy H. Crosby School in Markham was the first recipient of the beautiful Howard Cosburn Memorial Award presented here by Mary Cosburn to Principal Gerald Fisher. Mr. Cosburn was an enthusiastic promoter of work in the School Children's Section of the Fair.

Photos
by Jim Thomas
and
Jim Holt

The Bert Guardhouse Trophy for Supreme Champion Hereford was won by Wotton House Farms, Uxbridge and Greenbrook Farms, King. The awards presentation was made by Fair President Fred Crawford to Mrs. Dale-Harris, Uxbridge.

Belfry Hamilton, Harold Street, Stouffville, is no stranger to racing circles. He attended Markham Fair, Saturday, with 'Proud Caesar'. The sulky driver is Angus Reid.