

Markville's sod-turning spade donated to Town Museum

John Campey Graduation

By Evelyn Millsted GORMLEY — The community extends congratulations to John Campey, a graduate this Saturday with his Master's Degree from Queen's University School of Public Administration in Kingston. John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Campey will attend the graduation ceremony.

Fraser Gee and Frank Brumwell showed pictures of their summer trip to Europe at the W.A. meeting in Victoria Square United Church, Oct. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hawkins of Markham visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins, Sunday.

Rene Kibiger of Essex, England is spending a three week holiday with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Geoff Campey.

Grace Boynton was rushed to St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto early Friday morning, where emergency surgery was performed. At the time of writing she was still unconscious and her condition was reported as critical.

Mr. Amos Baker is a patient in York Central Hospital.

About forty members of the Walter Henderson family enjoyed a reunion at Victoria Square Hall, Saturday. This is the centennial year for the Henderson homestead where Blanche, Ruth and Freda Henderson reside.

Victoria Square United Church continues its year of centennial celebrations with special Anniversary services this Sunday, Oct. 26. Dr. Alfred Binnington, a former minister, will assist at the 11 a.m. service which highlights the Rev. Allan Read, Suffragan Bishop of Toronto, as guest speaker. As a young man, Allan worked for Mr. Heber McCague on the farm. The combined choirs of Victoria Square and Headford will provide the music. Following the service, a light lunch will be served. A special musical worship will commence at 7 p.m. with the same choirs and other talented performers.

The Gormley-Headford-Victoria Square Branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary is holding its annual salad buffet luncheon, bazaar and bake sale on Wed., Oct. 29 at the Victoria Square Community Centre. The luncheon is 12:30 to 1:30 and the bazaar is 1:30 to 3 p.m. Tickets are $3 each and may be ordered from Mrs. Goldsmith (887-5285) or Mrs. Walker (884-2882).

A special fellowship dinner will be enjoyed at the Heise Hill Church, Sunday, Oct. 26 following the morning service. Please bring a main dish and a dessert. The evening service will be cancelled in favor of a joint service at 7 p.m. in the Bridlewood Church. A film "How to deal with Stress" will be shown.

The Youth group from Gormley are guests of the Stouffville Missionary Church Youth group, Friday at 7:30 p.m. They will enjoy volleyball together.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Langford of Newmarket will provide special music at both services at the Missionary Church this Sunday.

Patience appreciated

Dear Sir: A letter of appreciation. Recently, I accompanied my children, Paul and Tiffany to the Stouffville Vision Centre operated by Dr. J.M. McDowell, 244 Main Street West. Dr. McDowell was extremely patient and co-operative, answering all of their questions and showing no desire to hurry them away. Sincerely, Paul and Pat Houston, RR 3, Claremont.

Insult

Dear Jim: When Lorne Almack wrote about a 43,000 acre rural slum, he grossly insulted many farmers. A large number are 4th and 5th generation families. Many have a large investment in livestock and machinery. Many are family farm enterprises. Much of the land is more productive today than ever before. There may well be problems in North Pickering, but an insulting negative attitude does nothing to remedy the situation. Sincerely, Glib Whitmore, RR 1, Markham.
